Scab Bulletin Issued By Wheeler

IT LOOKS LIKE BUFFALOES WILL COP THE PENNANT THIS YEAR

Grigg's Crew Have Been Playing Consistent
Baseball Since Early Part Of June

STIFF OPPOSITION BY DENVER AND TULSA

Next Ten Days Will Probably Decide The Issue—All Eight Teams
In Western Playing Fine Baseball Now—Omahans Take Great Interest In American League Race—St. Louis Browns
The Sensation Of The Junior Organization.

Visions of a pennant for the Burch Rods loom large on the horizon just now. After a hard southern trip, with as few as four pitchers ready for duty, the Buffaloes returned home right side up with eight victories to their credit and six losses chalked up against them. With the other contenders getting about the same break, the home boys came back with practically the same lead as that with which they left.

Since returning to their own dung hill, Grigg's hired men have been getting a pretty even break and on Thursday found themselves leading the Western by four and one-half games, a lead they have maintained for more than a month. There is little reason to doubt that Barney's crew will not be able to maintain or better the present standing and finish out in front.

As a whole the Rods have proved the class of the league this year and is not the style of club to crack under the strain of leading the way. That they have plenty of stiff opposition goes without saying as Denver has a well balanced team and Tulsa has a dozen or so dangerous batters that are liable to break up many games by their stick work before the season is over. In fact the batting of Tulsa has kept them near the top of the heap all season in spite of some mighty rotten defensive work.

St. Joe is another team the Buffaloes will have to beat out. The Josies have some mighty good material, some of them not as young as they used to be but get there never-the-less. Only eight games separate the four teams in the first division which is not a particularly large margin when one considers the number of games yet to be played.

The race in the Western is sure a sweet out just now with the two tall enders playing bang up baseball and beating the tar out of the leaders every once in a while. Had Lincoln played the brand of ball the early part of the season that she is now putting out, they would at this time be crowding Omaha for first place. It is a good bet that the Capitol city crew will be out there next season fighting for first place providing the club goes into the battle with their present lineup. Des Mones players are putting plenty of snap and ginger into the game and winning their full share of games.

The public is now turning out well to the games which is the biggest encouragement a club or the individual players can have. A baseball player is just like an actor; he can put his whole soul into his work when he sees it is appreciated, and appreciation is shown in just two ways, first by attendance and secondly by getting up off your hands so that you can use them when a good play is made.

While the interest of the people in Western League territory is naturally centered in Western League games, they are watching closely the bitter fight in the American League—especially during the last two weeks. The big feature in the junior major league organization has been the rapid rise of St. Lons from a position far down the percentage column to a commanding one near the top. Thurs-

FIRST MONTH'S TRIAL, COAST TO COAST AIR MAIL SERVICE PROVES SUCCESSFUL

Omaha As Center Of Night Flying Gets Much Publicity—Planes
Made Schedule Entire Month Excepting Three Days—
Speeds Up Mail From 10 To 48 Hours—Losing Proposition Just Now.

Air mail has cut the distance in hours between New York and San Francisco from 96 to 33 hours.

The air mail service inaugurated July 1st this year gives all sections of the country opportunity to reduce the same time consumed in delivery of mail east and west by the use of the new system co-ordinates the air and rail dispatch of letters.

"The first month's trial of the new coast to coast air mail has proved its success and forecasts even greater development of its possibilities as business men of the country take greater advantage of this "quick contact" medium between themselves and their customers from coast to coast, east, west, north and south." Colonel Paul Henderson, second assistant postmaster general in charge of mail transportation, declared in an address before Omaha business men.

"The air mail planes kept 94 per cent up to schedule the first month despite storms that have caused delays over the central zone of the air route. The income of the air mail has been $2,000 a day, but it must be brought up to $5,000 daily if it shall prove financially successful and warrant its expansion with north and south routes radiating from the arterial transcontinental airway from New York to San Francisco."

In a recent article written by Colonel Henderson he says that mail planes are now operated upon exactly the same sound transportation principles as govern and are responsible for the unparalleled success of the American Railway system.

"While the service of which you have read so much in the newspapers operates as an air line for the 2,680 miles from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, schedules are so co-ordinated with the railway mail service that cities from 500 to 1,000 miles north or south of the route of flight may avail themselves of the acceleration these provide. It is the proud record of the United States postoffice department that it was not only the first governmental agency in the world to put aircraft to economic use, but actually first to prove to the world that the primary function of flying is to serve humanity -- to make business more prosperous and life more pleasurable."

Success of the air mail has been proved by three successive experiments conducted by the postoffice department, Colonel Henderson points out. The first was the inauguration on May 15, 1918 of an experimental air mail line between New York and Washington, the second, the daylight routes in six divisions between New York and San Francisco, and third, the night-flying tests conducted in August, 1923, between Chicago and Cheyenne with Omaha as its headquarters, which proved the possibility and practicability of a continuous coast to coast air mail service.

Then came the inauguration on July 1, 1924 of this service which now offers a quick mail dispatch of 34 hours and 45 minutes between New York and San Francisco, and 32 hours and 5 minutes between San Francisco

TO HAVE SUMMER FIGHT AFTER ALL

New Club Signs Up Schlaifer—
Warnie Smith, Hudkins—
Hammer.

We are going to have a summer boxing match after all. The Thorpeian club has the card. Morrie Schlaifer and Warnie Smith are matched for the main go while Ace Hudkins and Ever Hammer will share honors with them, though may be billed as semi-finalists.

The boxing game is new to the Thorpeian club but they have had much experience in other athletic matters. Great interest will no doubt be aroused in the near all star bill in view of the fact that all the headliners are well and favorably known to Omaha boxing fans.

Schlaifer in meeting Smith in their first bout in this city came mighty near getting his ears knocked off by the slugging Smith. Warnie gave him an awful lacing in the early rounds but the Fighting Fool came back and won a decision that was indeed doubtful. Later in Chicago Smith fought Morrie to a standstill and won by a mile. This third encounter should be a lapalooza.

Ever Hammer who once licked Morrie when the latter was boxing as a lightweight will have a tough proposition on his hand when he meets Nebraska's lightweight champion, the stylish high stepper, Ace Hudkins.

The fight is to be held August 19 at the Auditorium. The old barn is to be cooled by a new cooling device.

DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS EXPECTED FROM RECENT HIGH SOCIETY SCANDAL

A few weeks ago we called attention to a pretty domestic mess in which a prominent commission man was directly concerned in the affairs. At that time we gave the name of the lady in the case as that of Morris on California street when it should have been Morse of Cass street.

We understand that a divorce is brewing and will be initiated next week with the husband doing the initiating. It will make fine reading if all the sensational facts in the matter are brought out. Chances are that it will be more or less smothered in other papers but readers of the Mediator may rest assured they will get the whole testimony and what ever more testimony may come to light outside the court.

WHEELER VISITS POLICE STATION

Chief of Police Charles Van Dusen had occasion to grab Lyman Wheeler by the collar and throw him out of his office Thursday, when the Recaller got fresh. It all came about a raid at 318 1/2 North 16th street where one of the Dunn recall petitions is alleged to have been removed on the day of the raid. Dean Ringer was handling the case, by consent of those interested but butinsky Wheeler wanted to be in on the works.

The case was to come up to-day for hearing in open Court.

KNOCKS AND BOOSTS BY THE OBSERVER

THE FILLYS' are still kicking over the traces out at Sam Rubin's North Sixteenth street race track. Sam says they are three to one shots in the mutuels but he does not think the meeting will last much longer.

DUNDEE BOND dealer who has been having so much fun with one of the fair sex, is going about patting himself on the back because he was not given all the publicity that was due him. He is just kidding himself as he will find out within a short time.

JOE HUMMEL will have to do something about Riverview park. After midnight four couples have been using it as a bedroom which is no nice thing to do when there are so many hotels begging for patronage.

MR. AND MRS. SHERIFF out at Fremont used some pretty rough stuff, so it is said, on the boys wanting something to eat. Inside details have not come to hand as yet but some sensational evidence of importance is expected soon.

DEAN OF NEWSPAPER MEN GOES ON A VACATION

Al Sorenson is on a vacation. It serves Al right. He certainly deserves one and surely earned it. Several local newspaper men claim the distinction of being the dean of newspaper men in Omaha, notably Mr. McCullah of the Bee and "Sandy" Griswold of the World-Herald. Both have served long and faithfully, having rounded out a half century of pencil pushing and key smashing but Al goes them one better with fifty-three years actual service in the harness.

Mr. Sorenson is one of the most versatile writers in this part of the You Ess Ave. We predict our friend will grind out hundreds of interesting stories before "30".

The Editor of the Mediator signed the original subscription list for Sorenson's Examiner, 24 years ago and has never missed a copy since that time. Furthermore he has always found great pleasure in reading its interesting contents. Mr. Sorenson turned the key in his mahogany desk last week and gave the Examiner, a decent burial to the great disappointment of his thousands of readers. He comes out of the newspaper adventure much the richer in experience and several thousand kopecks to the good. May he live to entertain us with his fine wit, his splendid humor and his kindly advice for many, many years to come.

With the retirement of Mr. Sorenson and "finis" written in the last issue of the Examiner, the Mediator remains the only white, English, weekly newspaper in the field. This paper will celebrate its 21th birthday, October 1st.

NEBRASKA EDITORS TO CONVENE AUGUST 21

Plans for the entertainment of 300 editors of Nebraska and Western Iowa, their wives and families, who will come to Omaha August 21 for their annual three days' summer outing, include many interesting features.

The editors will be registered at the Hotel Rome, Thursday, August 21, and those who play golf will be taken to the Omaha Field Club House course. That night the editorial party will be entertained at a theatre party at the World theatre as guests of the World Realty company. From the theatre they will go to the new Cinderella roof garden at the M. E. Smith company plant for a reception and dance.

AK-SAR-BEN POLO TEAM TRIM ST. PAUL BLUES 15-0

Outclassing their opponents and showing superior team work, the Ak-Sar-Ben team of Omaha defeated the St. Paul Blues, 15 to 0, in the class "B" junior competition in the northwest polo tournament, which began at Fort Snelling, yesterday.

In the other contests of the day the Fort Snelling Buffs had to go an extra chukker to win from the Minneapolis Reds, 6 to 5.

Today, the Fort Snelling Blacks, winners of the Sifton international trophy, will play the Second cavalry, Fort Riley, Kan., in the class "A" contest.

EX-CAPTAIN ATTEMPTS TO LIE OUT OF MEDIATOR CHARGES

He Convicts Himself Of Assinine Stupidity And Inability In A Very Ridiculous Effort

DISTORTED FACTS IN FAMOUS RAPE CASE

In "Rat" Circular Ex-Police Captain Says Case Thrown Out Of Court—A Downright, Studied Lie—Was Dismissed On Motion
Of County Attorney—Real Facts In Case Presented—Framed
Alibi All That Saved Him From The Penitentiary.

If there ever existed a doubt in the minds of the people as to what sort of man Lyman Wheeler is and has been that doubt was dispelled when he convicted himself last week in his Bulletin, No. 1, entitled "Wheeler's Reply To The Mediator and Tom Dennison."

If the voters and tax payers were in doubt concerning Ex-Captain Wheeler's ability to guide the police ship of state, they have now had and will continue to have sufficient evidence to prove to them, conclusively, his unfitness for the place to which he aspires.

Wheeler puts his signature to "Recall Bulletin No. 1" distributed last Saturday. We grant that he wrote the bulletin, though we have our doubts about it. Leastwise he dictated its substance.

The writing, printing and distributing of the circular convicts him of assinine, ignorance and inability. It also makes him out the most colossal liar of whom the public has ever been asked to support. His feeble minded effort to come back at the Mediator's statement of facts as published two weeks ago would be laughable were it not so pitiful. We are going to give the entire facts of the case in this issue in the hopes that he will bring the matter before the courts if he can find anything whatsoever on which to base a charge.

First we charge that he deliberately lied in his bulletin. We give our reasons for the assertions forthwith:

Wheeler stated: "The case is still on record and the judge threw it out of court." That statement is a brazen, barefaced lie. It was not thrown out of court. The real facts in the case are, that the case was not thrown out of court by the judge as stated by Wheeler in his first bulletin, but was dismissed on motion of the late Edward Simon, then deputy County Attorney, and in charge of prosecution.

This was after an alibi had been framed up to protect the morale of the police department as well as friendship for the dispicable ingrate, Lyman Wheeler. This by the way happened after Tom Dennison had signed Wheeler's bond, at the earnest and tearful solicitation of the ex-captain, who pleaded like a little child, that the case be fixed up so that he could escape the consequence of his most damnable assault on the helpless little girl of which he was guilty, with hardly the shadow of doubt.

That he was guilty of the charge there is no room for doubt. Had he been innocent of the dastardly act, it would not have been necessary to have framed an alibi to assist him to escape punishment.

Before proceeding further we now want to ask a few questions for him to answer in his next Bulletin, providing his "personally conducted street sheet" is still a going concern. Who framed the wrecked motorcycle story? Who was it that got both the day and night foreman of the street car barn to testify that the girl was a nuisance around the barn and requested Wheeler to keep them away? Who was it that interceded with the prosecutor in his behalf? Who was

DAN BUTLER, PROGRESSIVE NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR TO USE BATH TUB AS THRONE

Famous City Commissioner Would Want To Feel At Home—
Wheeler Would Be Made Big Mogul With "Young Girls First"
As Slogan—Might Install A Harem—Progressives Picks
Fine Bird To Lead Them Out Of The Wilderness.

You can't keep Dan Butler down, not clear down. Beaten to a frazzle as democratic nominee for governor at the last primary, Dan "bobbed up serenely at the psychological moment and hoisted his banner of purity and freedom which he carried while leading the "reformers" at the last city election. At that time he headed a ticket of simon pure aspirants, all of whom went down to defeat except himself, who through a peculiar turn of police fortune won out by the skin of his teeth, where before he had led the ticket.

Now Danial is the nominee of the Green-Beebe progressive ticket, whatever that is. These two gentlemen with a few others have a little Third, Fourth or Fifth party of their own and Dan is the boy they have selected to lead the hosts on to victory. As usual they will get no place quick. But they will have a lot of fun and collect a few thousand dollars, which is always an asset to a man of Green's calibre and is not to be despised by such a worthy as the most reverend Beebe. The money end of it will not effect Mr. Butler in any way what-so-ever as that gentleman thinks so little of the filthy lucre that he does not even take the trouble to spend it, providing it is his own.

Butler always representing the "peepul" as against the "gang" and the wall street power, was nominated to lead the Nebraska progressives in a most representative manner. A great mass meeting was called at which time the six individuals who own the Progressive party met in solemn conclave and after due deliberation nominated a man known to every bath house attendant in Omaha and not a few in Chicago and Sioux City, for the all exacting job of Governor.

Just as soon as Dan is elected Governor by the progressives ably assisted by the Committee of 5 million (Thousand, is out of date) Lyman Wheeler, protector of our little girls and the Ku Klux Klan things will start and Nebraska will see its finish but Dan will be in his glory. Just think of Dan commanding the Executive bath tub and placing it on the executive throne with two great oriental chairs on either side on which will be seated to the right Rev. Beebe and to the left Mister Green. Picture if you will two fiery crosses as a back ground, kept burning by the right good will and effort of Mr. Wheeler and his man "Friday" Dudley.

When that time comes and it will come at about the same time Judge Cooley takes his oath of office as judge of the Supreme Court, then may the citizens of Omaha rejoice exceedingly. It will mean a great deal to this great growing Metropolis. Wheeler will be police commissioner and drive out of town all the bad boys who, Leopold-Loeb like, try to ride some of the pretty little buxum girls on the handlebars of their motorcycles to some dark park where they will try and persuade the little girls to go home and lead a decent life, just like he did when a motorcycle cop.

THAT WHEELER BULLETIN.

Last Saturday there appeared on the streets a handbill with the heading "Recall Bulletin No. 1," signed by Lyman Wheeler. The Bulletin was of no great importance, because it said nothing worthy of comment. It did contain a scathing attack on two men, however. They were the editor of The Mediator and Tom Dennison.

Mr. Wheeler's attack on the Mediator editor is of no consequence, because nobody knows him and nobody is particularly interested in him. Considerable interest was taken, however in his attempted rebuke of Tom Dennison, who appears to be getting considerable notoriety these days. This notoriety comes from those who either are jealous of Tom, or are personally put out about something. It comes with poor grace from Wheeler to attack Dennison, who has befriended him in many material ways and on different occasions has gone so far as to save him his position by interceding for him successfully.

Now Mr. Wheeler responds with his Bulletin No. 1 which is not a work of art to say the least. It was gotten up in crude style, with many holes in it. It was of such little consequence, that some person, with a heart bleeding for Wheeler, decided he was either dead or dying and sent for the undertaker to his office. In fact two undertakers are said to have called, one being a Bohemian and the other a colored man from the North Side colored district. Both are said to have been informed by Mr. Dudley that nobody was dead there, but two of them were about dead.

Seriously, this has really all become a huge joke. In fact every man of intelligence, and especially those who have to do with making a Greater Omaha, is now expressing the opinion that Lyman Wheeler is trying to make a mountain out of a mole hill. They consider Wheeler about the poorest excuse of a man that could be selected for public duty, even as a patrolman. Commissioner Dunn has been criticised to no small extent for ever promoting Wheeler to the position of captain. Indeed, they declare he should have been dropped from the force entirely, long ago. This talk does not come from Tom Dennison or any of the Third ward crowd, but from substantial men in the city who have its best interests at heart.

We have a suggestion to make to Mr. Wheeler, and it comes from The Mediator, and nobody else. That is that he has carried this stuff about far enough. It rankles with questionable intentions and wishes. It is very unfortunate for Wheeler that he has been caught with the goods on him, and it is time for him to take a tumble. The public is very little interested in the propaganda being put out by the ex-captain, and most of them are simply disgusted with him.

A short cut out of it all is the best before something more serious happens to you Mr. Wheeler is our suggestion. Maybe its already too late. These things have happened to better men than Mr. Wheeler. We say it is time to take a tumble.

Foreign Loans Are the Best Means of Developing Our Foreign Trade

By FRANKLIN REMINGTON, Foundation Company.

Foreign loans are the best means of developing our foreign trade. In seeking fields for wider markets this nation naturally turns to undeveloped countries which, being without funds, have no purchasing power. It is evident, that in order to become customers, such countries must raise funds through foreign loans. It is almost invariably the rule that foreign trade follows foreign loans, and it is a well-established policy of Great Britain to loan only on condition that expenditures for materials are made for British products. This practice is followed closely by other European countries.

The great question, then, for American manufacturers to answer is how to make loans to undeveloped countries in competition with Great Britain and other European countries.

The most formidable bar to placing foreign loans in the United States is that the American investor is not interested or posted on foreign issues. It is, therefore, difficult to market them unless they be government loans of the older nations. If this formidable impediment can be overcome, then the United States will be in a position to take foreign loans in competition with Great Britain and other European nations.

Olive Growing.
The region in which the olive may be successfully grown for commercial production of fruit in the United States is not so great as for most frost-hardy fruits. Commercial olive growing has been confined to portions of California and Arizona, although the trees will live and bear some fruit in portions of all of the southern states of this country.

Sucking Fishes.
The sucking fishes of the deep seas have their back fin modified into a powerful sucker by which they can fasten themselves to the bottom of ships or to big sea animals and solve the problem of transportation.

Home of the Chestnut.
The home of the chestnut is in the Mediterranean region, where chestnut trees have been cultivated from early times.

BOY HANGS FROM BRIDGE TO SAVE LIFE OF A GIRL

Holds Her Suspended Over River in Movie Fashion to Escape Train.

Bristol, Va.—Details of how Barnett Hollingsworth, of Asheville, N. C., saved the life of a girl here several days ago in the most approved movie style have just leaked out at King college here, where young Hollingsworth is a student.

Hollingsworth, a member of a house party at Island Park, was escorting Miss Gladys Arnold across the trestle which spans the Holston river at Island Park. When almost midway across the narrow trestle, which is more than 100 feet above the river, the couple saw a train approaching. The train was almost upon them when the youth swung himself over the side of the trestle and shouted to the girl to leap into his arms.

Girl Jumps Into His Arms.

Locking his feet under the rail and throwing his knees over the strip of plank that ran parallel with the rail, Suspended Over the Side of the Structure.

Hollingsworth hung, head downward, over the water and the girl flung herself into his grasp. In this manner the two were suspended over the side of the structure and high above pointed rocks below.

Just as Hollingsworth clutched the girl the step of a car ripped through her clothing, almost jerking her from his arms. He edged out a little farther and pulled her away from the train.

The engineer of the train had thrown on the brakes the instant he saw the couple and the train came to a stop directly over them. A young man, who had seen the plight of the pair, crawled under the cars and hauled the girl and her rescuer back to safety.

Prisoner Proves Too Big for Small Cell

Philadelphia.—Because he was unable to stretch out full length and go to sleep in a cell of a police station here, Frederick McGregor, thirty-three, of Erie, Pa., who is 6 feet 8 inches in height and weighs 250 pounds, complained bitterly to police officials concerning his incarceration on a charge of passing worthless checks.

When detectives entered a room of a hotel they found McGregor asleep in bed with his ankles extended between the brass rails of the footboard. McGregor was taken to the station house and placed in a cell 5 feet long and 4 feet wide and the prisoner was compelled to bend his head in order to stand up, as the cell was only 6 feet high.

McGregor announced that he would continue his interrupted nap and threw his bulky form on a steel bench, which groaned beneath his weight. A short time later the turnkey was summoned to the cellroom by the noisy complaints of the giant prisoner.

"How the thunder can a fellow go to sleep when he has to lie all twisted up like a corkscrew?" inquired McGregor.

The turnkey solved the problem by removing two small bars from the cell door even with the steel sleeping bench.

"Now, let your feet stick through the opening," said the turnkey.

The prisoner followed the advice and his stentorian snores soon reverberated through the cellroom.

SCAB BULLETIN ISSUED

BY WHEELER

it that did all these things to save him, a nonentity, a poor unfortunate piece of humanity, his position on the police department?

The Mediator is in possession of all the facts and can say without fear of contradiction that neither the judge who tried the case nor police Commissioner Dunn, knew anything concerning the framing of the alibi at the time. If the Mediator has not stated the truth concerning this case which in the usual category would be termed a rape case then why in the name of all that is fair and decent does he not take action against the paper instead of trying to substantiate his position by a dirty lying and malicious attack on the editor and on others, some of whom are unknown to the paper's publisher?

In his No. 1, Vol. 1 of the Bulletin, Wheeler states that he does not belong to the Ku Klux Klan and at the next stroke of the pen begs their support. In this he has been rather crafty as will be seen by the method he has and is using to get their support. He has appointed as his chief lieutenant, J. J. (Solo) Dudley, a disturber who was kicked out of the police department. Dudley was always known as a "Red", against the government, against God and against organized society in general.

This man Dudley who is fighting so valiantly for the recall must surely be one of the leading lights in the local Klan. This is patent from the fact that he has full charge of the distribution of the tickets that admit one to the Klan's next initiation to be held, we understand August 12. Wheeler has a mighty good reason for his denial of connection with the hooded organization at this particular time.

He and his supporters are using the most questionable methods to secure signatures to the recall petitions. He is playing both ends from the middle but does not seem to be getting very far with his dirty stuff.

For example: One assistant named Coffey, an ex-police captain approaches Catholics for signatures saying they are only opposed to Negroes and Jews; another approaches Jews and claim they are only opposed to Negroes and Catholics, still another looks after the Negroes and says they are only fighting Jews and Catholics. The entire process is simply a ruse to dupe the uninformed to sign the petition. It is not working as well as Wheeler and his peculiar backers had expected.

Once more we repeat that if Wheeler had not had influential friends to have the County Attorney fix things for him, he would have had to go through with the trial and would without doubt have been convicted and probably sent to the penitentiary for a long term of years, which such a crime as he is charged with, demands.

This then is further evidence of the character of the man who is asking by petition that Henry Dunn be recalled and that he (Wheeler) be elected in his place. He is fast finding out the people will not stand for him.

The editor holds no brief for Tom Dennison or any other man or organization. He is sole editor of the paper and the only man responsible for its contents. The subject matter is handled only by himself and brother, associated with him. Tom Dennison, the same as any other citizen including Lyman Wheeler, Dudley, Butler et al at all times have the privilege of using the columns of this paper if they so desire, to air their views. This statement is only given that Mr. Wheeler may know that neither the paper nor its policy is dictated by any other than the editor, who knows conditions and does not hesitate to tell of them when occasion demands.

When Wheeler in his Bulletin charges that the paper is printed in the interest of the Underworld he is making an ass of himself and no one knows it better than some of the denizens of the underworld who have felt the effect of scathing articles directed against them.

Wheeler says in his sheet that the Mediator has attempted to assassinate his character. That would be impossible. He had no character to assassinate. He buried his character, if he ever had any, many years ago.

It is surely amusing to note how the deceased brain of Wheeler and his simple minded Kluxer, Dudley, distorted the facts in the now much discussed rape case upon a mere child by the would be reformer and ex-police captain. Wheeler laments the fact that the daily papers would have nothing to do with the story he submitted to them which in substance was the same as appeared in the "Bulletin." It is to laugh. If the poor nut had a grain of sense he would know that a respectable paper would not stoop to print such a dirty pack of rot for their readers to peruse, especially when it was an attempt to cover up the facts of a terrible crime generally credited to the man who submitted the article to the papers.

The printing of the Bulletin was a rat job, printed by some scab who showed his lack of knowledge of the printers art. Union labor used the sheet for toilet paper only and will pay no attention to it, officially or otherwise. Many calls came to the office from labor men denouncing the Wheeler method of catering to scabs. Those who make their bread by the sweat of their brow now know where he stands on the labor question and what he would do it elevated to the position of police commissioner.

In his circular Lyman says that "he did not enter this fight for personal aggrandizement, other than to carry out a real ambition to see that the police department got a real house cleaning and only agreed to enter the recall after so many of his friends had induced him to do so." No, not much. He wouldn't do anything like that except to help out Omaha. Neither would he assault a young girl for personal pleasure, he would do it only to teach the girl a lesson we presume.

Next week we will give our readers more information concerning the man who is "sacrificing" everything just for what good he can do. There are many interesting stunts to be recorded yet and it may be depended on that the Mediator will give them to the public.

In concluding this week's story of Wheeler and his record, we are anxious to learn what the hundreds of bankers, lawyers, doctors, manufacturers and retailers, not to mention the thousands of West End readers and subscribers of the Mediator think of his characterization of them as denizens of the Underworld.

IT LOOKS LIKE BUFFALOES WILL COP THE PENNANT THIS YEAR

(Continued from page 1) day they were within three and a half games of the Yanks who were leading Detroit by a single game and Washington by three full games.

The entire country appears to have gone bug house over baseball this season if attendance records are any criterion. Beat New York is the slogan of not only the players in Ban Johnson's loop but the citizens in that territory as well. In fact everyone wants to see some other than the Yankees win the pennant this year. Not that they have anything against Huggin's team but it gets notorious to see one team hog the honors all the time. If they lose the championship this year it is almost certain the honor of beating them out will go to Ty Cobb's Tigers in spite of the fact that Washington and St. Louis are giving them such a close race at this time.

France Honors Memory of Its Dead Soldiers

The memory of the German army's entrance in Paris in 1871 through the Arc de Triomphe (the tomb of the unknown soldier) has been obliterated by the march through it by the victorious French army in 1919, and the victory has filled France with a new spirit, says Raymond G. Carroll in a Paris letter to the New York Evening Post.

Never before have the French people been so pious, so devout, so well behaved, and so responsive to symbolism.

There is not a city, village or hamlet but has its bit of sentiment displayed for a shrine. Monuments to the "heroic dead" of France, it has been estimated, if placed in a line would stretch from New York to Philadelphia.

Preserved by Burning

A flame-throwing device which was designed by Germany and used during the war is now being successfully utilized in New York state as a means of protecting electric light and telephone poles from decaying in the earth. The pole before being set up is treated with the flame thrower until a charcoal surface is formed. Creosote, which hitherto has been used alone, is then applied. This system of treating the poles, it is stated, lengthens their lives considerably.—London Answers.

Poland, Land of Tipping

If you live in Poland, or stop there, you are expected to hand the postman a wad of money when he brings you a letter, to tip the elevator man, and all the run of porters and hatboys and chambermaids and others that do you unsolicited services, besides the ones who really serve you.

If you walk across the river on the ice you are expected to tip the boatman, and he will chase you for it. He is not using his boat, but you are using his ice, and you have to pay.

"The Covered Wagon" A Colossal Hit

James Cruze's Paramount production, "The Covered Wagon," eclipses anything in pictures. There never has been seen such a picture as this one which opened to a capacity audience at the Strand Theatre last Sunday.

This production is undeniably one of the most magnificent screen presentations ever shown here. There is a long line of excellent players headed by J. Warren Kerrigan and Lois Wilson. The latter will be remembered for her excellent work in "Manslaughter."

Mr. Kerrigan as Will Banion, leader of a wagon trail, falls in love with Molly Wingate (Lois Wilson) whom he meets when his wagons join those headed by her father, Jesse Wingate (Charles Ogle). Alan Hale playing the role of Sam Woodhull, a scoundrel, is tentatively engaged to marry Lois, and bitter rivalry arises between him and Banion.

Throughout the story, Woodhull is set on "getting" Banion. After a series of thrilling events, he encounters Banion in California where the latter has made fortune in the gold fields. Woodhull is about to kill him from ambush when Jackson, an old scout, sees Woodhull and kills him.

Banion is informed that he has been cleared of certain charges, made against him by Woodhull and that Molly is waiting for him in her frontier home in Oregon. The picture closes with the reunion at the Oregon homestead.

The work of Mr. Kerrigan is most commendable. Miss Wilson proved unusually charming. The production is as magnificent as it is colossal.

"SINGLE WIVES" SHOWS HOW TO BE HAPPY THOUGH MARRIED

What of the woman whose husband has decided that he need no longer court her?

This is the intriguing theme of the First National production, "Single Wives," which comes to the Rialto Theatre on Saturday, for one week, in which Corinne Griffith and Milton Sills are co-featured for the first time on the screen.

Earl Hudson, the author, had delved into the innermost recesses of the human heart and taken from it a story of its aches and desires; he has made a subtle etching of a modern matrimonial tangle; he has painted a portrait of wedded folk that is said to be of wide appeal and true to latter-day life.

In the story of "Single Wives," the author has shown how a normal couple, loving each other and living a quiet life, may, through the agency of trifling incidents, drift apart—perhaps to the danger point.

Betty Jordan—played by Corinne Griffith—yearns for the little, thoughtful acts that her husband, Perry, seems to overlook. When he presents her with a pearl necklace on her wedding anniversary he unwittingly hurts her to the quick by his lack of enthusiasm or romanticism. When another man appears on the horizon and he gives her more attention than she receives from her husband she finds herself drifting away from her fireside. Her own mother, at the same, faces the same situation. How the two triangles are finally solved makes the unfolding of "Single Wives" an absorbing story.

In addition to Corinne Griffith and Milton Sills, the cast boasts of very prominent screen names, including Kathryn Williams, Lou Tellegen, Henry B. Walthall, Phyllis Haver, Phillips Smalley, Jere Austin, John Patrick and others. George Archainbaud directed the picture from a scenario by Marion Orth.

When the millennium dawns at this happy period we will find Semphore Dudley chief of police. On inspection day the police force will be drawn up in line, each with a deck of cards in his hand and a monthly report on his win and lose solo and whilst record. Those with low scores will be automatically eliminated and replaced by some experienced gamblers. This will go a long way to reform the police force and run the pikers off the force.

But the big doings will be down at Lincoln where "Governor" Butler will reign supreme. In the summer time Secretaries Green and Beebe will no doubt add the municipal ice plant in disposing of the frozen Acqua as they keep the Governor's famous bath tub throne cool in summer and the harum occupants well satisfied with their portly chief. However these things are only incidental. The chief reason for rejoicing is that Butler has been nominated by the progressives, is the fact that WHEN he is elected governor the people will have an example of piety and square shooting, unparalleled in local politics.
