PRESIDENT FLAYS KU KLUX KLAN IN SPEECH

In Discourse to Shriners He Delivers Strong Denunciation of Klan

DOESN'T MENTION INVISIBLE EMPIRE

Tells 20,000 High Masons That Fraternities Must Be Just If They Are To Survive. Intimates Organization of Hooded Men A Menace To Government And Society in General—A Wonderful Speech

A severe blow was dealt the hooded un-American Ku Klux Klan organization this week by President Harding when he openly denounced this outfit in a public speech to the Shriners gathered at Washington for their annual meeting.

Assailing the menacing and "secret conspiracy" as contrasted with the fraternal organization of high purpose, President Harding in his address to the Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine delivered what is accepted as the strongest denunciation yet hurled by the government at the Ku Klux Klan.

Without mention of the Invisible Empire, but with a series of references to "misguided zeal" conspiracies, "unreasonable malice" and by emphasizing that "in every worthy order the principles of civil and religious liberty, justice and equality are taught in lecture and obligation," the President brought cheers from his hearers and frequently he had to stop and await quiet.

The tone of his address is viewed as the more significant because Imperial Wizard W. H. Evans of the Klan is in Washington, having just concluded a secret conference with Ku Klux leaders from various states.

Mr. Harding spoke after reviewing the Shriners' parade, which he witnessed with Mrs. Harding, Gen. Pershing and members of the Cabinet from the grand stand in front of the White House. Some 20,000 Shriners marched down Pennsylvania Avenue and past the executive mansion, their brilliant colors giving a new touch to the historic thoroughfare that has been the scene of nearly every known kind of demonstration.

The President, who stood to salute the colors of each passing unit, said the parade was the greatest he had ever seen.

"Fraternities must be just if they are to survive," he told the Shrine Council. "And they must be just to appeal to men in their fellow relationships. Secret fraternity is one thing, secret conspiracy is quite another.

"I like the highly purposed fraternity," he said again, "because it is our assurance against menacing organization. In the very naturalness of association men band together for mischief, to exert misguided zeal, to vent unreasoning malice, to undermine our institutions. This isn't fraternity; this is conspiracy. This isn't associated uplift, it is organized destruction. This is not brotherhood, it is the discord of disloyalty and a danger to the Republic.

But so long as 20,000,000 of Americans are teaching loyalty to the flag, so long as one can witness spectacles like that we saw in the nation's capital today, the cherishment of our inherited institutions and due regard to constitutional authority, and the love of liberty under the law, we may be assured the future is secure.

"There is no misconstruing the aims and purposes of our loftier American fraternalism. For the great brotherhood there is the patriotic appraisal of the heritage of the Republic. Here is representative democracy, wrought in sacrifice and toil, amid liberty's highest aspirations, and not force or violence, no alien purpose, no social madness shall be permitted to destroy it."

Mr. Harding made clear he did not believe fraternal relationship should enter into the affairs of Government and was applauded for his stand.

"A president would not be ethical," said he, "if he related fraternal ap-

Big Events in the Lives of Little Men

OBERLIN IS FOUR-FLUSHING AT ALLIANCE

A man giving the name of L. L. Oberlin, who says he has been working three and one-half years for Mr. Rohrer and on the Omaha police force one and a half years, has been appointed night chief of police of Alliance Neb., according to newspaper reports, which also say he has been so busy in federal cases in Omaha and Kansas City for the last month, that he could not report sooner at Alliance. As a matter of truth Oberlin was never heard of in Rohrer's department, according to United States Deputy Marshal Nickerson, and never connected with the department. Arthur Shields, who has been secretary to the police commissioner and chief of police of Omaha for the last fifteen years has never heard of Oberlin. Certainly he was never connected with the Omaha police force, according to Shields.

United States Attorney Kinsler never heard of him. He said there had been no booze cases before the court for a month, and that no man by the name of Oberlin had ever been one of his witnesses. Apparently City Manager Kimmish of Alliance has been given the wrong hunch, or is being imposed upon. The Mediator has received several inquiries about Oberlin, and this is what it has been able to find out. Tom Dennison says he never heard of Oberlin. That surely settles the matter.

JUDGE PATRICK AND POLICE CLASH

Police and Judge Patrick of the municipal court clashed again last night over the question of whether or not persons sentenced to one day in jail should be released at 5 in the afternoon of the day on which they were sentenced. Judge Patrick refused to give an interpretation of the order, but called Acting Chief of Police Dillon and instructed him to release the prisoners at 7 last night.

Six men had been sentenced by Judge Patrick to serve one day in jail. The judge, in passing sentence, believed that the men would be released at 5, as has been the custom. The jailer, however, declared the writ of mittimus that had been given him called for one day's incarceration and that he would hold them for 24 hours. "I learned at school that a day was composed of 24 hours," Jailer W. R. Wilson said, "and I will not release the prisoners sentenced to one day in jail until I have received orders to release them from the superintendent or the captain in charge of the station."

Judge Patrick called Captain Allen and instructed him to release the men. The captain in turn transmitted the order to Wilson and the six men, sentenced yesterday morning, were released.

TOO SLOW HERE

Dundee was hardly fast enough for one widow who lived in that section of the city until this week when she sailed for Paris where life is swifter and the bright lights never go out.

DOC CONNELL GETS SOAKED PLENTY IN HARD FOUGHT SUIT

Attorney Connell worked like a trojan for his son, Karl, but he was unable to keep the jury from giving the girl 50,000 smacklers. The old man and other attorneys are raising Heaven and earth and a little hell in their attempt to obtain a new trial. Like Heinz and Company they had 57 reasons to present the judge why a new trial should be allowed.

Violet appears to be well satisfied with the award, even though she had to go through a seven day vaudeville show, as the attorney's termed the trial.

FIGHT FANS SIGN UP FOR TRIP WITH HOLMES

As the time for the Dempsey-Gibbons fight draws near, interest grows in Omaha according to Ernie Holmes who is making up a party to attend the scrap. The cost of the trip will not be great considering all the fun the bunch of good fellows ought to have out of it.

LAMSON LOSES GO TO WILLIE MEEHAN

Willie Meehan staged a successful come-back Wednesday night at Oakland, Cal., when he was awarded the referee's decision over "Soldier George Lamson" in their four-round bout. Meehan is about the only man who can boast of ever having been awarded a decision over Jack Dempsey. Meehan has been out of the fighting game for the past few years. Lamson is well known here.

ALBERT ROSENTHAL TO VISIT OLD UNCLE IN GERMANY

Albert Rosenthal, now a prosperous real estate man of New York City, but formerly a popular business man of this city is due to sail for Germany on June 13 to visit an 100-year-old uncle now living in Germany. Mr. Rosenthal was one of ten children, all of whom have become more or less widely known in the business world.

Albert, during the time he lived in Omaha was recognized as the best pianist that the city ever boasted. He is a favorite nephew of the centenarian that he is about to visit as he was the only one in the family musically inclined. The uncle, Moses Hahn, in his younger days was known as one of the leading musicians of Germany.

When Mr. Rosenthal left Omaha for New York most of his numerous friends understood that he was to re-enter the clothing business but choose instead a career in the reality game of which he has more than made good.

JENNIE CALFAS TELLS N. Y. GOVERNOR A FEW THINGS

It is to be expected that Governor Smith will resign now that Dr. Jen Calfas has written the New York World stating that she did not approve his action in signing the Mullen-Gage repeal act. The good doctor says that states rights were shot to death on some battlefield and that the stuff is off so far as Governor Smith is concerned. Jennie ought to know as she learned all about states rights up in Canada a few moons ago.

BEST GALLOPERS WILL COMPETE IN CLASSIC

If the Track Is Heavy Some Favorites Will Be Scratched

ABADANE PICKED AS SURE WINNER

Delante Is Another Favorite That Will Be Backed To The Limit. Granny Lee Has Been The Big Surprise Of The Meet. Long Shot Boys Have Cleaned Up. A Record Crowd Expected Saturday

The first week of the Spring race meet is now history and marks an epoch in the City's history of sport. With the weather just about as bad as it possibly could be, so far as the general public is concerned, it remains a fact that several attendance records have been shattered. The hope has been all upset as but few favorites have gone over according to Hoyle. That, of course, is what makes the game so interesting and sends some of the boys home saturated with filthy lucre while others are glad to have one of Mr. Wattles' little chips to ride back to the village.

The best and most interesting races of the meet are yet to come and as the meet goes in to the second week it is expected that still greater crowds will be on hand to witness the races and hold communion with old man Perry Mutual. The mudders have had a track to their liking most of the week but few of them have run to form. If Jupiter Pluv keeps on acting up the way he has been doing the past few days it is very likely that several world renowned ponies are likely to be scratched for the $2,000 Derby to be run Saturday. If such is the case there will be a world of money bet and distributed in a way altogether different from what would be expected if such favorites as Delante, Abadane, Judge Pryer and one or two other bang-tains that are eligible for the race.

Granny Lee has been the surprise and sensation of the meet so far. On opening day the talent wouldn't give a dime for her or her whole family with the result that a few of the long shot boys cashed in a plenty. Wednesday Granny copped again in the third race at six furlongs but this time there was enough dough down on her to bring the price down to $16.60. If the Briggs entry keeps up such a pace it will not be surprising to see her go to the barrier a near favorite.

Lots of the wise gazabos are waiting for Brazos to enter again the first of the week. She paid well and run a great race in her first race. Several colored boys cleaned up nicely on Bronston who from his performances last year did not appear to have a look in. It was a "stable" hunch that went over, with the Negroes taking most of the money.

Down at the cigar stores and other little "shops" where the betting fraternity gather to dope out the gallopers a great deal of conversation is spilled concerning G. W. Crippen's "Phrone Ward." Some seem to think he has gone back while others are making plans to back the former Irwin horse to the limit.

Charley Trimble, who does about a regiment of men's work before and after the meet, says that everybody connected with the game seems well satisfied with the first week's results and attendance and expects to see hundreds of out-state racing fans out at the field during the remainder of the race meet.

All the old times may be seen in or about the stands every day but several are complaining about their inability to pick them as they have had the habit of doing in former years. Most of the big money changers have been sticking to the favorites with more or less disastrous results. One old time race follower says that he has made a five dollar bet on every race of the meet, always laying 'er down on the longest shot and claims to have made money.

BERNIE BOYLE EXPECTS TO STAGE A FIGHT CLASSIC LATE IN JULY

Fans Not To Be Cheated Out Of Their Favorite Sport During July. Legion Also To Hold Boxing Match On Fire-Cracker Day. Boyle Plans To Match Dave Shade And Billie Wells

Prospects look bright for the boxing fans of Omaha and eastern Nebraska during the month of July. The thousands of dyed-in-the-wool fight followers in this neck of the woods had about come to the conclusion that promoters of the game in Omaha would pass up the middle month of summer so far as the fight game is concerned, but recent developments prove otherwise.

In the first place the American Legion figures on putting on a corking good match at League Park on July 4, while at another time during the same month Bernie Boyle, who has had the good fortune to stage the most interesting fights ever pulled off in Nebraska, expects to treat some ten thousand fistic followers to a fight they have always hoped for but never really expected to witness.

Followers of the game have been wondering why Boyle has not staged a fight during recent months. No matter what other papers may have to say on the subject, pro or con, the fact is that he has positively refused to consider any fight program that would not be the equal or better of any other matches that he has promoted. It would have been an easy matter for this man to have matched up a score of mediocre fighters to show their wares in this burg, but Bernie does not believe in doing things that way. Therefore he has layed off up until now but in the meanwhile has been busy in making a fistic program that is sure to create a genuine sensation in Omaha.

Boxing followers of Nebraska are very liable to see the cleverest welter weight in the game today, Dave Shade, enter the ring with none other than the tough Billie Wells of England, some time during July. That is the match that everyone in this part of the country has been waiting and hoping for and it now looks as though the long talked of match is to become a reality.

If the unexpected happens and there appears no way of getting the two men together during July, Boyle has a heavy weight match in mind that should prove all but as popular as the proposed welter mix-up. It would be a bit premature to go into details of such a bout, as the Wells-Shade bout seems assured. Just now Shade is interested in what Mickey Walker is going to do after what the New York Boxing Commission has done to him. The Empire State boxing matter for this man to have matched

ANTIS WOULD RUIN GOVERNOR SMITH

It was to be expected that a bunch of cranks and a few public officials would rave over the action of Governor Smith in signing the repeal bill which took the Mullen-Gage law off the New York statutes. An eastern journalist has a few very pertinent remarks on the all absorbing subject.

He says that many of the attacks upon Governor Smith since he signed the bill repealing the Mullen-Gage law have been dictated by unreasoning anger. His action has inspired the utterance of much silly non-sense by his critics. The shrill cry raised by extreme prohibitionists about nullification on the part of the New York cannot be excused on the plea of ignorance. It is a gross and willful offense against common sense. Governor Gifford Pinchot, for one, declares that "Pennsylvania will stand by the Constitution of the United States. . . . Governor Smith's action will have two results. It will encourage every bootlegger and every Red." It is the Volstead act that puts the highest premium on bootlegging, and its lax, inefficient and corrupt enforcement by the Federal service that encourages it. Anyhow, why drag in the Reds? If they did not exist William J. Burns would invent them.

The Governors of Kansas and West Virginia talk in the same vein. Attorney General Crabbe of Ohio telegraphs Commissioner Haynes at Washington, "Ohio is still against secession," and more about "Al Smith seeks to nullify the Constitution." This is sheer claptrap, but it is the highest law officer of Ohio that renders this preposterous opinion.

What the Legislature of New York has done, with the approval of the Governor, has done is simply to repeal a state law not in accord with the will of the people. It was not only acting within its rights but carrying out a popular decision at the polls. Nothing is changed in the Eighteenth Amendment or the Volstead Act. "The mere omission," as Governor Smith wrote, "to maintain a state statute in no way abrogates a Federal statute."

The Mullen-Gage law has been repealed. When the Pinchots and others recover their balance they will find that Governor Smith issued this clear notice: "Let it be understood at once and for all that this repeal does not in the slightest degree lessen the obligation of peace officers of the state to enforce in its strictest letter the Volstead act, and warning to that effect is herein contained as coming from the Chief Executive of the State of New York." Only "with the repeal of the Mullen-Gage law the prosecution must be where it belongs—in the Federal court." It is malicious misrepresentation to distort the facts.

KU KLUX KLAN INTOLERANCE

The underhanded methods of the Ku Klux Klan are being given a proper razzing in all parts of the country. This un-American outfit is working overtime in New York and other eastern states just now. In a recent editorial the New York World pointed out that time has begun to tell on the fine edge of Ku Klux intolerance. The Klan is finding more and more difficulty in hating with a firm, full, two-fisted hatred any person not white, native born, Anglo-Saxon and Protestant. Hating so many people in public hurts the business in dunce caps and initiation fees. It also hurts the private business of individual members whose membership happens to become known. To avoid friction the Klan begins to retract.

Among the 2,000 persons present at the recent Point Pleasant initiation ceremonies were a number of Catholics and Jews, invited, it was said, to prove that the Klan is not as hostile to these sects as had been commonly supposed. Immediately following the Grand Dragon, who walked behind the band in the parade, came an organization of the foreign-born affiliated with the Klan, known as Riders of the Red Robe. Surely the purpose of the Klan is sadly blunted when nothing distinguishes a foreigner from a hundred percenter but the color of his masquerade costume.

Meanwhile the Klan has gone up to Albany with an application for incorporation as a "benevolent fraternal society." Crossing its heart and hoping to die otherwise the Ku Klux insists that it is a good little Klan, that its intentions are honorable, that it only meant to be specially patriotic and upright. All the night riding and mummery and invisible empyring was just in fun. And whoever believes these protestations would believe anything.

PRESIDENT PLAYS KU KLUX KLAN IN SPEECH

peals to which he must turn a deaf ear. I will have said enough if I suggest that men lose their right of fraternal hearing when they transgress the law of the land."

The president, a member of the Shrine, appeared at the council meeting wearing a red fez and was introduced as "Noble." He opened his remarks with a tribute to Free Masonry.

"I like the atmosphere of fraternity," he said. "I rejoice in the knowledge that I am addressing a body where every heart-beat is loyal American, where every impulse is American, where every commitment and consecration is to the Republic and its free institutions."

"Sometimes there are false impressions about fraternal organizations. No man ever took the oaths and subscribed to the obligations with greater watchfulness and care than I exercised in receiving the various rites of Masonry, and I say it with due deliberation and without fear of break faith, I have never encountered a lesson, never witnessed an example, never heard an obligation uttered which could not be openly proclaimed to the world."

"More, if the lessons taught were heeded, if the obligations read were assumed, if the relationships urged were adopted, men would be infinitely better in their human relationships."

Mr. Harding voiced the belief that fraternity as taught among American men would mean the end of warfare if applied to the relationship of the nations.

CHAMPION HOPPE IS IMPROVING IN PLAY

Really Remarkable How He Manages to Hold On to Balk-Line Billiard Championship.

It is really remarkable how that man Hoppe manages to hang on to the balk-line billiard championship.

He held it for years and years, and then young Jake Schaefer, a real chip of the old block, took it from him, only to have it won back again by Hoppe the year after.

Then Schaefer challenged him some days ago, and while at first it looked as if he would wrest the title from Hoppe again, he wound up 150 points behind him when the whole thing was over.

It was a match of three sessions of 500 points each, and it really did look as if there was nothing to it but Schaefer during the first evening.

Hoppe played a wretched game. Seldom had he shown himself to such disadvantage.

He was off in his stroke, and what is particularly strange for him, seemed very nervous.

When the first night's play was over, Schaefer had finished his first block of 500, and Hoppe only made 277, or 223 behind him.

To most billiard players that would have been an almost unsurmountable barrier to winning the tourney, but not so to Hoppe.

Whatever happened to him on the first night is hard to explain, for he could hardly have been so sure of himself, hardly have taken such chances as to deliberately let his rival get that far ahead of him.

On the second night, however, he was entirely himself again. He kept nursing the balls against the rail and got 80 caroms in a field less than six inches square.

His high run was 143.

Schaefer during this competition only managed to secure 494 points, and Hoppe actually got 723, thereby filling the two blocks of 500 each, for the first and second nights.

Then he started the third and last night with only six ahead of Schaefer, but by wonderful manipulation of the balls, and absolute sang-froid, managed to run out at a time when Schaefer had only a total for the three evenings of 1,341 to his credit.

Who the next challenger will be is hard to tell, but it may be decided by an elimination process.

PERTAIN TO MEN AND MULES

Only Known Animals That, Willingly and Unwillingly, Are Known to Wear Collars.

Collars are tubular articles of apparel worn about the neck by men and mules. The reason that the last named animal wears them is obvious. A collar consists of several square inches of linen made into a strangling noose and stretched to add to its potency. Some are uprights, other grands and still others simply instruments.

They are of varying heights, according to the hardihood of the wearer, observes a writer for the New York Sun. Some men are so hardboiled that they wear collars with protruding points in front and play a game with them. The object of the game is to prevent the points from working through the under jaw and destroying the molars. Fortunately the collar does not often win and the stretching exercises incidental to the play are beneficial.

Many good farmhands have been ruined because of a burning ambition to wear a collar perennially. The problem of the exodus to the cities might be solved by a public exposure of the implement. For some reason office slavery is called white-collar work and those who do not carry the hod are said to be white-collar workers, but this is only a flowery figure of speech, the collar that will stay white on the job not having been made.

In families the men of which have worn collars for generations that unlovely protuberance known as Adam's apple is virtually nonexistent. Among those who have but recently joined the collar corps the old perambulating pipin puts up a hard fight, but is finally pushed back, to the evident discomfort of the windpipe. It is fortunate that only the air passage suffers and never the one through which food must travel.

ODD VARIETIES OF MEDICINE

Cobweb Pills Supposed Good for Ague, and Snake's Head Broth for Various Diseases.

The heads of venomous serpents have held an important place in medicine. A strong broth made from them and mixed with salt and spices, and one hundred other remedies, was employed under the name of theriac as a cure for every conceivable disease.

Curious survivals of this old belief in the efficacy of certain reptiles and insects as cures for human ills occasionally come to light, even in this advanced age. In New England, cobweb pills are supposed to be good for the ague, and in the South a certain knuckle bone in a pig's foot is a cure for rheumatism. If it is carried in the pocket or worn suspended from a string around the neck.

The spider-web pill originated in China, where all species of insects have certain positive or negative values in medicine.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sacred Horses in Jap Park.

In the famed park in Nara, Japan, there is a sacred horse. This shaggy, undersized animal is said to be about the funniest thing in Japan. He is pure white, and has one blue eye and one pink eye. He is kept in a small stable with a square hole for him to poke out his head to eat the oats which tourists bring him. The third largest bell in Japan hangs in Nara park, which contains 1,250 acres, and throughout which more than 3,000 stone and metal lanterns are scattered. Six hundred tame deer roam at will in the park.

Also in Nara park there is one of the three gigantic bronze Buddhas, and the largest. The others are at Osaka and Kamakura. One of the most venerated of Shinto shrines—Kasuga no Miya—is the goal of thousands of pilgrims every year. It has existed for 1,210 years.

Considerate of the Bank.

An English sailor just home from a long cruise entered a bank in Hull and greeted the clerk with: "What cheer, matey! How's your business doing, hey?"

"Not very brisk at present," answered the clerk, "but I hope to see it improve shortly."

"That's 'ard!" said the tar sympathetically. He fished out a check for £100.

"How'll you have it?" asked the clerk.

The sailor hesitated a moment, then leaned over the counter and said in a hoarse whisper: "Well, matey, I don't want to be 'ard on yer. Gimme ten pun' now and I'll take the rest a pun' a week."—Boston Transcript.

When He Remembered.

An absent-minded man came home one day after a heavy rainstorm, very bedraggled and wet. His wife met him at the door, and as he greeted her he made the remark that he had forgotten his umbrella.

She was surprised to think that he even remembered that he had forgotten anything, and asked him when he had thought of it.

With a smile of satisfaction he replied: "Why, my dear, when it stopped raining and I went to shut it."

Asked Advice and Got It.

Young Man—I want a word of advice.

Mr. Wader (grimly)—Well? "What is the best way to approach you for a bun?"

"If you are sensitive, better write for it, and when you get my reply, tear it up without reading it."—London Advertiser.

Manager Frank Chance Has Been Panned Before

Back in 1906 Chicago fans became very angry when the Cubs gave a raft of players to Brooklyn for Jimmy Sheckard. Among the players Frank Chance passed over to the Dodgers were Pitcher Buttons Briggs, Outfielder Boots McCarthy, Infielder Jimmy Casey and Catcher Maloney.

Cub fans didn't mind the acquisition of Sheckard, but they thought that Charles Webb Murphy, the new Chicago owner, gave too much of the club's strength for one man.

It turned out that the coming of Sheckard proved just the thing to convert the Cubs into a championship machine. He helped Chicago win pennants and world's championships, while the players Chicago sent to Brooklyn soon drifted out of the fast set and the transaction that Cub patrons thought to be so daring turned out to be the biggest "sucker" trade in years.

Perhaps history will repeat itself in this Pennock trade. Pitcher Murray, Infielder McMillan and Outfielder Skinner have never been first-string men, although, of course, they may improve, but yet it must stand on the records that the Yanks gave none of their important strength, yet received one of the best pitchers in the nation.

THRILLING AERIAL SCENES BIG FEATURE OF "THE GO-GETTER"

The most thrilling and picturesque aerial scenes ever staged for a motion picture, it is said, were made in the filming of "The Go-Getter," a Cosmopolitan picturization of a Peter B. Kyne story which E. H. Griffith directed and which will be the feature at the Rialto Theatre for seven days beginning Sunday, June 10.

The "shooting" of these scenes took place at Curtiss Aviation Field, Mineola, and other parts of Long Island and in the International Studios in New York.

This particular part of the picture entails nothing but night scenes, the most spectacular of which is one showing a race between an aeroplane and a speeding express train. This scene is expected to be a revelation when shown upon the screen, especially the part where the speeding train is shown as "shot" from the flying aeroplane. It brings to the screen some directorial ingenuity and also some exceptionally splendid photography.

In the making of these aerial scenes for "The Go-Getter" Director Griffith had the co-operation of the Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Corporation, which released an air machine for certain "shots" that were taken in the International Studios. William J. VacMillan, assistant manager at Curtiss Field, designed the apparatus and supervised the setting up of the aeroplane in the studio, assisted by members of the Curtiss engineering staff, who worked out various safety factors and perfected other details.

KRUG PARK MANAGEMENT ADDS FREE INSTRUCTION IN SWIMMING FOR THE LADIES

Krug Park is not only opening its swimming beach free to women and children of a morning, but is placing competent women swimming instructors at the pool to teach novices in the art of self propulsion at a nominal cost.

Two instructors have already been engaged and more will be employed as the classes grow. Mrs. Irene M. Schroeder of Omaha, and Miss Gladys Brecker are the two on duty.

Miss Brecker was a member of the University of Iowa's girls' swimming team last winter, and carried off honors in several interscholastic and Midwestern A. A. U. swimming meets.

She also holds a number of Midwestern A. A. U. records both plunge for distance and free style.

Miss Brooker is a daughter of H. J. Brooker, 4529 South 19th street, So. Omaha, and will be at the pool throughout the summer months. She will return to Iowa for the fall semester.

Mrs. Schroeder is Miss Brooker's senior and has developed scores of expert swimmers. Several of her understudies are now accredited instructors.

Her most important positions were at the natatorium in Chicago, and at Sandy Point. She was at both these places a full season.

Mrs. Schroeder teaches any stroke, but advocates the Australian crawl and side stroke.

The Australian stroke is preferable for women as it is more simple to learn and most as effective as some of the more difficult ones.

Both instructors guarantee to teach any novice to swim within five lessons.

RETAIL GROCERS TO PICNIC AT KRUG PARK

The Omaha Retail Grocers' Association will hold its twenty-fifth annual picnic at Krug Park on Thursday, July 19th.

The annual outing, which this year celebrates a quarter of century of life, will not only be attended by the association members, but by at least half of the non-member grocers of Omaha according to Vice President Sam Rosenblum, chairman of the picnic committee.

Efforts will be made to put the picnic over on a larger scale than ever. It is expected that 20,000 persons will participate, as free admission tickets are to be distributed by the grocers two weeks prior to the event.

To stimulate interest in their annual frolic among the kiddies, the business men have subscribed to a fund to purchase ten Shetland ponies which will be given away to the holders of the lucky numbers.

The numbers will be printed on the admission tickets.

The ponies will be bought and put on exhibition, probably at Krug Park, several weeks prior to the picnic.

"We want to meet all our customers at this picnic," declared Chairman Rosenblum yesterday, "just to show 'em how sincere we are, for it is part the customers' picnic the same as it is ours."

ALLAN SIMPSON, COLLAR POSEUR, IN MOVIES NOW

Man Whose Face Has Been Seen in Advertisements Plays in "The Exciters," to be Shown at Strand

He can't walk along a public highway without being recognized! People who are strangers say "Hello" to him with the assurance that they know him well but can't place him. His face is almost as famous as Thos. Meighan's—yet few people know his name. His likeness stares at one from billboards, electric signs, subway cards and store windows, and now in front of motion picture theatres.

His name is Allan Simpson, poseur for nationally known collars, cigarettes and hats. Now he is a member of the supporting cast of the Paramount production of "The Exciters," co-starring Bebe Daniels and Antonio Moreno, which will be on at the Strand theatre for one week.

When Simpson applied for work at Paramount's Long Island studio, the casting director frankly told him that he was hired because of his classic features only, and not because of his histrionic abilities, which had not been proved. Some time later, when Simpson was given a part in Allan Dwan's production of "The Glimpses of the Moon," the casting director was pleasantly surprised. Simpson played a somewhat minor role in this picture with such taste and discrimination that he was immediately signed for work in "The Exciters."

It might be imagined by those who do not know Mr. Simpson, that he is conceited. But Simpson can't help but know he's good looking. He's been receiving fine salaries from various manufacturers just for reproduction of his features in connection with commercial products long enough to realize that fact.

"The Exciters" is a superb picturization of a popular stage play directed by Maurice Campbell and including in its supporting cast Burr McIntosh, Diana Allen, Bigelow Cooper, Cyril Ring, Ida Darling, Jane Thomas, George Backus, and other players of note

TELEPHONE AND AUTO IN RACE FOR SUPREMACY

The number of autos in the United States is almost equal to the number of telephones. According to the report of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, there are 14,050,569 Bell telephones in the United States. There are probably 450,000 independent telephones, making a total of about 14,500,500 in all. The last census gives the number of automobiles as 12,500,000 that are in operation in the United States. It is estimated that by the end of this year the number will exceed 14,000,000.

Vanishing American Birds.

One of the most remarkable exhibits in the habitat group in the American Museum of Natural History is the nest of a duck hawk on a shelving rock on the Palisades, with the rocky rampart of nature stretching in the background and the placid river below.

It deserves to be ranked as a work of art—this glimpse of the bird life of New York's beauty spot—as, in fact, do all the exhibits in the habitat group.

As one enters the booth in which the scene is installed, one finds it hard to believe that he is looking at the combined work of the artificer and the painter, and not on the actual shelving rock hundreds of feet above the Hudson, with the mother-bird poised in the summer air, hovering over the nest with the food for her young grasped in her claws.

And the duck hawk is still to be found—or was to be found there in 1908, when three pairs were nesting across the river from the city's hub-bub.—Exchange.

Housekeeper Is Wanted as Nursemaid for a Pup

Unable to get a housekeeper through the usual channels, Howard L. Davis, poultryman and dog fancier of New Egypt, N. J., is advertising for "a nurse for a thoroughbred, pedigree, registered fox terrier pup." The object may be "matrimony if the applicant falls in love with the pup."

"Big wages to the right party" are promised by Davis, who says the big requirements will be to "care for the pup and get his owner a couple of meals a day, make his bed, and keep his house clean."

GUARDSMEN TO GIVE PUBLIC DANCE TONIGHT, KRUG PARK

Union Pacific employees, comprising Company K, 134th infantry, National Guard, will give a public dance at Krug Park tonight to raise funds to defray the company's expenses to the state legion encampment next fall to compete for the state legion cup, awarded for the best drilled company in the state.

Company K won the cup at last fall's encampment at Plattsmouth.

BERNIE BOYLE TO STAGE FIGHT CLASSIC LATE NEXT MONTH

guls have taken the crown off the dome of Mickey because he has religiously refused to meet the Californian which appears to be about the best thing that body has ever accomplished. No matter what the final result of such action it will not affect a Shade-Wells meet here.

Wells is out in Montana doing his stuff with Jack Dempsey, very probably teaching the big boy a few things that will come in handy for the Champion on fire cracker day. If promoter Boyle gets these two fighting demons together he will have given Omaha sports the greatest match that has ever been staged in the middle west. The fight will no doubt take place in League Park and will probably be witnessed by the greatest number of people that ever attended a sporting event in Nebraska.

Readers may expect at any time a definite statement on the proposed match, so far as the principals, time and place is concerned.

It has been demonstrated beyond the possibility of a doubt that locomotives and street cars are more substantially built than autos.
