

CITY CAMPAIGN GETTING HOT

5000 COMMITTEE IS TAKING ALL COMERS

Danger Lurks For Candidates Who
Try to Double-Cross Friends

FOUR MEN GET INTO COMBINATION

Steve Maloney Also Now One of Has-Beens in Race With Hopkins, Kilmartin and Beveridge—Religion Threatens to Enter Program.

Danger lurks in the offing for some of the candidates who have felt it desirable to quietly tie up with what is known as the "Committee of 5000," an organization that has been in existence for some time, and the principal object of which has been the promotion of its leaders and the support without work of one or two men who have been identified with it.

The latest accretions among candidates are given as Leo Beveridge, John Kilmartin and John Hopkins. These men have all filed their petitions and are avowed candidates for city commissioner. Each of them has also identified himself with some other combination which has temporarily tied up with the Committee of 5000 with a view to getting the votes regardless of how they are secured. Beveridge has identified himself with what he calls the "Onward Omaha" bunch, while the Kilmartin and Hopkins candidacies are being promoted by the American Legion, a very respectable institution, which is usually known as non-political.

Young Beveridge, who until recently was a reporter on one of the Omaha newspapers, is a graduate of Creighton, and it is said the membership of that big institution is also supporting his candidacy. At the same time, Beveridge has identified himself with the 5000 committee, the leaders of which are admittedly anything but Creighton supporters. Just how Beveridge expects to console both sides to this combination has not been mentioned thus far, but Beveridge is doing some tall hustling, just the same. He is a comparatively young man, but is a hustler of considerable ability. He took the Creighton law course, and his cards say "Mr. Beveridge is a lawyer, an ex-service man and well qualified for the office he is seeking."

In the cases of Kilmartin and Hopkins, they also have decided, it is stated, to work under the 5000 banner and to identify themselves with the movement undertaken by the coterie of men who are proclaiming that institution as an all-powerful one, which seeks to name the next city commissioner.

Kilmartin and Hopkins, both ex-service men, have been promoted by the American Legion, who will finance their campaigns. It is said that Steve Maloney, once chief of detectives but fired off that job because his usefulness was at an end, will also tie up with this crowd. In fact, it is reliably stated that all colors of the rainbow will be represented on the 5000 slate. Maloney, Beveridge, Hopkins and Kilmartin are all new ones, as candidates for city office.

These fellows are well meaning, but they have got into bad company.

The 5000 committee is composed of

KILMARTIN AMONG THOSE MENTIONED FOR HONORS

John Kilmartin's name was among those mentioned by his friends at Thursday's meeting of the "Committee of 5000." Kilmartin has been suggested by the American Legion as a candidate for city commissioner. Friends of Kilmartin, who have been watching conditions, however, believe he will not be foolish enough to tie up with that body. Like other wise birds, Kilmartin has taken cognizance of conditions. If he should become a candidate, his friends believe he will not care to be handicapped by an endorsement by this crowd.

FRANK MAHONEY WILL FILE PETITION SOON

Frank Mahoney, for nearly a score of years deputy in Douglas county assessor's office, will file next week a petition to become a candidate for city commissioner. Mahoney is known to about every business man in Omaha. He "sized up" their assessments for many years. Incidentally, Frank is the father of Ike Mahoney, star in High School of Commerce athletics, and a fine young Omahan.

Mahoney has not made any big plunge in the city commissioner race, but from this time on his friends will have an opportunity to know he is in the running. He is making no promises, but if he lands the job will be worth the while to the Omaha people who are interested seriously in the commissioner race.

DEAN TANCOCK TAKING FRENCH LEAVE REPORTED

Dean Tancock, who for several years has officiated at Trinity cathedral, has left Omaha for an indefinite period. From some sources it is stated his going is in the nature of a "French leave" and that his face will not be again seen in the city.

Although leaders in Trinity cathedral are not talking for publication, some very remarkable reports are being circulated about the departure of Dean Tancock, and it is stated these reports may continue to be unverified by those who are familiar with conditions surrounding his departure. This is certainly a great old world.

Doings In Omaha Fifty Years Ago

Nick Holbrook, proprietor of one of our popular Sixteenth street eating emporiums, was again able to be on the job. Nick was sure one of the busy boys.

Jack Devany, Missouri river fish merchant, was again doing a thriving business, his daily sales being placed as high as $200.

Jim Sutej, carrying the hod for Mr. Herbelich, was the handsomest man in his neighborhood, all the girls told him. Jim was pretty careful about letting some people know what they said.

Billy Atkins, former townsman, was again thinking of entering business in our fair city. Billy was a great dancer in his time.

Mike Sullivan was in the municipal race. Mike gave a lot of them cards and spades in the game when he got started.

George Green, Kenosha, Wis., musician, had not reported recently in Omaha. A lot of Council Bluffs people also were asking about George.

Levi Bloomfield was thinking of running for mayor. A lot of people said Levi had it on some of the fellows who were already in the race at that time.

Tommy Hart was still munching that quid of tobacco. Tom said it made him feel at home.

Steve Maloney told his friends he was in the commissioner race. Steve was a great jker in his time.

That old stuff Al Kugel was pulling off at the Y. M. C. A. was the latest joke in politics. Al was another of the has-beens of his time.

Billy Fraser was having some big time with his W. O. W. friends, but at last report was holding them all down in fine style.

Larabee Buckwalter, Florence boulevard citizen, was talking about getting on the woman's end of the commissioner ticket. Larabee was the goods.

5000 COMMITTEE IN MUCH MISERY

Alleged Reformers Wonder What Tom Dennison Is Going to Do—
Tom Says Will File Soon—Sutton Only Person to Take Chance With Wead-Thomas Combine.

The city campaign is warming up in a manner anticipated by nobody some time back, when it really looked like a tame affair. Men who two weeks ago thought no attention was being paid to the city fight for commissioner, now see one of the hottest campaigns in the history of the city in sight. Judge Abraham Lincoln Sutton, once an honored citizen and member of the district bench, has volunteered to become a victim of the so-called "Committee of 5000" but thus far is the only man who is willing to take that chance.

This Committee of 5000 has degenerated into what has been termed by good authority "the 50 grafters," although only thirty-two could be counted at their last meeting. In fact this 5000 business has been found to be a huge joke, and the financial calls on the few promoters have been so great that much internal disturbance has been caused. It is said that Fred Wead has been forced to dig into his jeans for most of the money and that Elmer Thomas may be forced to eat snowballs next winter unless he can get away with something at the coming election.

Up to Thursday only twenty-six persons had offered themselves on the political altar of sacrifice, but it was stated that some fifty others had agreed to contribute to the fund that pays Commissioner Harley Moorhead's salary. Many have signed their intention of getting into the race the coming week.

The Wead-Thomas machine has spent most of its time and a lot of its money recently trying to get a line on what it terms the opposition. When it was announced that Tom Dennison would file for a place on the primary ticket conformation was thrown into the ranks of the 5000 crowd as it calls itself. Although Dennison has not filed thus far, it is reliably stated that his petition has been completed and may be filed at any time. It is pretty generally conceded that Dennison could beat anybody the 5000 crowd wanted to offer, and the result has been that only one man, Abraham L. Sutton, has consented to be a victim of the 5000 committee thus far.

During the week it has also been discovered that one of our big daily newspapers is prepared to throw the harpoon into Sutton and any associates that may be selected for him. For all of which reason stock in the so-called 5000 Committee has been quoted far below par. In view of conditions even such staunch supporters as Bill Ure and Roy Towl have intimated that they are losing much of their kindly feeling for this small crowd. They all appear ready to accept an endorsement but none of them is willing to make any pledges.

"Just wait until we find out what Dennison does," is the watchword at

MEDICAL MEN WILL BE OMAHA'S BOOTLEGGERS UNDER NEW RULING

Local Breweries Soon to Be in Operation Again to Make Beer for Medicinal Purposes—New Decision Relieves Painful Situation.

The personnel of Omaha bootleggers is due for a change, it is said, in view of the recent ruling in Washington that beer and light wines may be manufactured for medicinal uses. And Nebraska, despite its law against the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor of any sort, will come under the Washington ruling.

It is reliably stated that in the near future the treasury department at Washington will send out a code of rules under which the manufacture of beer and light wines for medicinal purposes will be allowed. Just how many Nebraska breweries will take advantage of the ruling is not known, but several of them have indicated their intention of commencing the manufacture of beer as soon as the ruling becomes effective.

Under this ruling, beer may be had for medicinal uses. The presumption now is that physicians will relieve bootleggers of the trouble they have heretofore been to and that the handling of beer "on prescription" will become a popular pastime. In fact, it is believed we are soon to become a nation of invalids, at least so far as the securing of a beer prescription is concerned.

At this time, Omaha is having a happy time with bootleggers. It has been estimated that nearly 1,000 persons are identified with the business in one way or another within the city limits. From time to time they get "knocked over," but when one disappears half a dozen others appear. The beer ruling from Washington has not been very popular with Omaha bootleggers, who fear their business may be ruined. Many of them have been handling pretty rotten "hooch" and that fact has brought consumers to the realization of a situation which demanded drastic action.

As a general proposition, it is said that the present administration at Washington is not averse to a liberal construction of the Volstead act and it is generally believed the recent ruling permitting the manufacture and sale of beer and light wines will go a long way toward removing the bad features of the Volstead act and the eighteenth amendment. It will let down the bars in a manner that will relieve an awkward situation and at the same time do away with the open saloon as it once existed.

In Omaha, it is stated that at least one and probably two breweries will soon begin the manufacture of beer under the recent ruling, but distribution will be under government supervision, and on prescriptions from physicians only. It will also lay considerable more responsibility on the medical profession, which will in reality be in possession of the key to the new situation.

Cold Facts For Omaha Voters

If you are an Omaha voter you have been keeping in touch with local conditions, but probably you have overlooked some things. Three years ago the voters scrambled for a change in city administration and got it. They elected a bunch of city commissioners who "have been weighed in the balance and found wanting." The change was made in the name of "reform" but those responsible for using that motto have proven to be a veritable bunch of worthless demagogues who have confined their efforts to the establishment of a line of graft peculiar to their own methods and have been getting away with it. In fact, the city's business has been permitted to degenerate in a most shameful manner, while a crowd of political grafters have taken hold of matters and dared even God Almighty to dethrone them.

It is time for Omaha to get back to a business-like system of operation. In three short years the city's finances have put us in a deplorable condition. When the present city administration went into office Omaha's credit was about 10 per cent above par. Today it is about 25 per cent under par. The city of Omaha could not float a bond issue of any size tomorrow at par, despite the fact that up to three years ago there was a scramble in financial centers for our bonds.

What has happened to our financial condition has also happened to every other department of the city's business. A crowd of useless police bosses permitted our court house to be burned and a man hanged by a lawless mob. Not a single thing done by the present administration can be pointed to with pride. Graft of the most gigantic character has been indulged in by some of the men responsible for the conduct of the city's affairs, and at no time in its history has the city been the scene of so much lawlessness of all kinds as during the last three years.

It is time to get back to normal. Voters will have an opportunity to take matters into their own hands April 5. What are you going to do? Are you going to permit this crowd of gangsters to continue their unholy attempts to destroy our city or are you going to get back onto a law and order and business-like basis? Think it over and take a look at the candidates and their records.

LABOR SITUATION BECOMES ACUTE AND MANY STRIKES ARE SCHEDULED

Recent Vote of Packing House Employees Considered Significant—
Railroad Men Are Preparing for Readjustment—Big Employers Settle Their Own Troubles.

The recent vote taken in packing house and stock yards circles, as to whether workmen should go on strike, in the event of a reduction of wages being made by employers, came to employers as a surprise and it lays wide open the apparent intention of these thousands of men to go on strike in the event of their leaders giving them the word. The vote favoring a strike was more than ten to one in favor of the strike and that means the fight is on in earnest.

The packing house situation really is a fever for labor of all kinds, and there is plenty of evidence that a battle is on for the near future. It will not be confined to the packing house business, but is expected to extend to many other lines of employment. Although the building trades situation was thought to have been settled, it now appears that a battle is on the schedule for the near future that may tie up building operations for another season.

While mediation was agreed to in some lines of trade last week, it appears that other lines are going to fight it out for retention of the present high wage scales. It is claimed by labor leaders that the price of living has not decreased to any noticeable extent and this fact is given as the reason for refusal to even consider seriously any proposition for lower wages.

Many large corporations, however, are solving the question without much trouble and are managing to meet conditions in their own particular manner of securing readjustment. Railroads have solved the question by either laying off or discharging outright thousands of employees who have been receiving riotously high salaries. Many of these places will never again be filled, or in the event of them again being filled, the men who formerly occupied them will return at greatly reduced salaries or not at all.

As a general proposition there is now going on a general readjustment of wage scales and from all appearances employers are willing to close up shop rather than attempt to keep open with the present wage schedule in vogue. This fact is true in many lines of trade, and from all appearances strikes will be numerous the coming season.

Railway labor unions are now trying to adjust their fight through a federal board, but no settlement is in sight. April 1 is expected to witness a number of strikes in various lines and some time will be required for readjustment, with a prospect of thousands of idle men during the coming summer months.

SUTTON VS. NEWBRANCH

Judge Abraham Lincoln Sutton, who has been made ring leader for the Thomas-Wead combination of self-appointed spokesmen for Omaha's law-abiding people, has undertaken to secure a joint debate with Harvey Newbranch, editor of the World-Herald, which the latter has very pleasantly but very properly declined.

This man Sutton has been a big but worthless poser as one of the very few simon-pure representatives of good government, and his latest bluff is quite in keeping with his record. He has decided to enter the race for "mayor or commissioner" and is being supported by the fine Italian hand of F. D. Wead, whom Omaha people have to thank for nothing good. For a right-hand bower, Wead has selected Elmer Thomas, the leech who has so persistently grabbed off the money for many years starring as a reform leader.

Just now Sutton appears to be worried about the part the World-Herald will take in the campaign. He has reason to be worried. From all indications that newspaper is going to make it pretty hard for Sutton and his gang of tools and flourishing grafters.

Mr. Newbranch gives Sutton the advantage of plenty of space and the dear public is left to decide whether or not the candidate is getting the best of the argument. Mr. Newbranch apparently intends to do his talking through the columns of his newspaper. Sutton will be on the candidate's platform putting out his old line of talk with which voters are already familiar.

Incidentally, The Mediator will have some things to say about the men who are candidates for office at this election, and will not mince words telling about things it knows when the time comes.

It is very evident Mr. Newbranch will be able to take care of himself during this controversy and we suggest to Judge Sutton that the least he says to or about Mr. Newbranch the better off the judge will be.

A WORD TO THE WISE

Reports state that labor, union and non-union, has picked eight candidates for city commissioner. They have not all filed, as yet, but most of them will have paid their filing fee before a nother week rolls around. And right here is where labor is playing hob with itself. That fact was proven three years ago, when labor had a slate of its own and not a single man of those selected had a look-in.

To start with, labor is not entitled to neither eight nor to half that many representatives on the ticket, considered from any angle whatever. If labor has any notion of securing recognition on the next city commission it should concentrate on one, or not more than two men, at the very most. Under such conditions labor might have a chance to do and accomplish something.

Not a man mentioned as being supported by labor would be a failure as a city commissioner, but the foolishness of an attempt being made to make up and elect what is known as a "labor slate" is too absurd to even be thought of. It would be wisdom of the high order for labor to take a tumble to itself if it expects to get anywhere in the coming city election.

If this humble newspaper might make a suggestion, we would say that one or even two good representatives of labor might secure endorsements that would be worth their while if they will get together. Otherwise, it is needless for any of them to file.

This city election will be an important one for Omaha people. For three years they have been victims of the worst sort of mal-administration the city has had inflicted upon it during its entire history. Labor has a right to representation, but such a thing will never occur if an attempt is made to put through a long labor ticket. Nobody wants it, not even the laboring men themselves. If labor is wise it will centralize on one or two good, strong candidates and forget the rest of them.

It is time to take a tumble, and if labor leaders are leaders at all they will get wise and try to accomplish something worth while. Meanwhile, the people of Omaha will watch their actions pretty closely.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

The past week has witnessed two jury decisions, in murder cases. One of them was that of Burnell Lawson in Omaha; the other was that of Clara Smith-Hamon, at Ardmore, Okla. Lawson was sent to the penitentiary for life and Mrs. Smith-Hamon was acquitted.

In many respects these two cases were similes. Lawson killed his wife, off whose earnings as a woman of the world, it was claimed, Lawson existed. Lawson narrowly escaped the electric chair. Clara Smith-Hamon was the mistress of Jake Hamon, Oklahoma oil millionaire, off whose millions it was shown Clara and her whole family existed. She killed Hamon with a revolver, but was acquitted and has been made a heroine.

All of which brings back to us the question of whether there is always justice in jury trials. The evidence in both these cases showed that the killing resulted from practically the same causes. The man was given a life sentence and the woman was given her freedom.

There was really no reason why both of them should not have gone to the electric chair. Lawson killed his wife in a jealous fit, and Mrs. Smith-Hamon killed her paramour during a similar blow-up. She had lived with Hamon in a hotel for ten years, despite the fact that he had a wife and family in another locality. There was no more excuse for her than for Lawson. She has been crowned a victim of persecution and Lawson narrowly saved his life.

As a matter of fact, both Lawson and the Smith woman were rotten to the core, but society stands for both of them. Lawson was what is known as a "common pimp" while Mrs. Smith-Hamon was the mistress of a millionaire, with whom she spent ten years simply because of his money.

The whole business smacks of a serious need for a change of things generally. If the law could deal with Lawson it could also deal with Clara. But the verdict in these two cases was just the opposite of each other. At that, every body will stand for it from the woman. It is only natural.

IF YOU WANT to be on time, have your watch regulated and adjusted by Brodegaard Bros. Co. A trial will convince you. Strictly union shop.—Adv.

JIM BLISS HANDSOME, BUT IS ALWAYS BUSY

Greek Interpreter Finds Much to do
Keeping His Countrymen in Right
Path at All Times

Jim Bliss, Greek interpreter and well known to a wide circle of Omaha business men, is a leader among his nationals. Jim is employed by two leading railroads in the adjustment of differences between themselves and their Greek employees. He saves these railroads a lot of trouble and sometimes he saves them some money.

Jim Bliss

There are a lot of Greeks in Omaha. Most of them seek Americanization as soon as they have become eligible. Bliss looks after a lot of them and furnishes a rest room for them at Thirteenth and Jackson streets. He was born in Canada, but has been a citizen of this country for a score of years. He has confidence of Omaha business men and is particularly well known for his scrupulous manner of doing business. Those who do business with Bliss like him best because they know he is "on the square." Although he is still a comparatively young man, he is head of a family, with five lively youngsters to keep him busy.

headquarters of the Wead-Thomas combination. Dennison, if he is in the game at all, appears to be saying nothing. Those who have known him best say he will confine his efforts to securing the nomination for himself and let the others take their own chances. Jim Dahlman, former mayor, has not yet filed and nobody is willing to vouch that he will do so. Although some of the wise ones declare there is no doubt he will make the race.

Dean Noyes will file next week. Noyes is what might be called a dark horse. He is a man of mighty experience in city work and will be a big noise in the battle of ballots. In fact, Noyes is conceded a place on the final ticket.

Of course Joe Hummel and Henry Dunn will be nominated and elected. That is conceded. The same may be said of Jim Dahlman if he consents to run. Al Kugel has been making a lot of noise recently. He appears to be inclined to line up with the 5,000 bunch, who are suspicious of him but somewhat receptive. Truth is, this 5,000 crowd is in a "hell of a pickle" about candidates. Nobody appears to be willing to front very seriously for them. Sutton has been the only man to take a chance thus far and it is pretty generally known that Sutton is beat before he starts. It appears that Harry Zimman is worrying the 5,000 crowd. They don't like Jews but are afraid to leave Zimman off. Zimman doesn't appear to care a tinker's darn whether the 5,000 crowd endorse him or not and is reported as refusing to make any concessions to them.

Labor has indicated its intention of taking a big hand in affairs. Eight men have already filed who claim to represent labor. Some of them represent nobody but themselves and do not represent themselves very well. Others who claim the labor vote are considered pretty strong. Those opposed to labor take the position that representatives of union labor cannot themselves agree and that a certain element will vote solidly against them.

Altogether, the campaign is getting pretty warm and some unusual developments are expected during the coming week. Watch the fireworks.

5000 COMMITTEE IS TAKING ALL CORNERS

Just two men, who are trying at this time to promote their personal ambitions. They are Fred Wead and Elmer E. Thomas, neither of whom may be called assets to the city. They have, however, got together a small coterie of politicians and are attempting to promote a movement for advancing their own selfish interests in the selection of city commissioners whom they may boss for the next three years.

Maloney is what might be termed a sorehead. Hopkins is a pretty good fellow, who in the past has been a recipient of favors from those whom he is at this time so strongly opposing. Beveridge is an honest, hard-working kid, who has been badly advised, and is now trying to work both sides against the middle. It will be interesting to watch his work, because to a certain extent it has brought two religious factions into a contest of supremacy in the contest.

At a recent meeting of this Wead-Thomas committee there were actually only thirty-two present of the 5000 claimed as members. Fred Wead has been the financial bubble and it is said he is spending a pretty sum on the promotion of his crowd. It has been uphill work because considerable suspicion has been cast upon the work of this crowd recently. Even Bill Ure has shown an inclination to sidestep it. When Ure sidesteps what pretends to represent votes, there is some meaning to it, because he is credited with being some real politician.

Taken altogether, some of the people who have been identified with the so-called 5000 movement have come to learn that it is really a myth and most of the mere wondering just where they are going to get off.

PIPKIN GIVES REASONS FOR BEING CANDIDATE

Charles W. Pipkin, candidate for nomination for city commissioner, has put out his platform, which sounds good. In part, Mr. Pipkin has this to say of his candidacy:

I believe that you, as a citizen of our city, should know the platform of every candidate—where he stands and for what he stands. For your guidance on April 5 I cheerfully give you the following information:

I am an American citizen, of lawful age, and qualified to successfully fill the position for which I aspire.

I believe in Omaha and Omaha institutions. I am proud of our city and encouraged by her growth.

I believe in law and order.

I do not believe in mob rule.

I do not believe in extravagance.

I believe that a city government should be as progressive as the city itself.

I believe that the streets and boulevards of a city like Omaha should be in better repair and kept clean.

I believe that the police department should be brought to the highest degree of efficiency—this being one of the most important departments. It should be in charge of a broad-minded and capable man—not a chief in name only, but a chief in reality—and he should be held responsible for the administration of his department.

I promise, when elected, to give my full time to my office and to make an honest effort to fulfill my duties in a most efficient manner.

During every city election there are a few candidates who try to further their own interests by "mud slinging" —by making a big noise and yelling "graft" and "gang rule"—in fact, doing everything in their power to distract attention from the real issues and their own shortcomings. These candidates are nothing short of "character assassins" and should not receive the suffrage of a single voter. In my opinion, a "character assassin" is the most dangerous enemy to Americanism.

When elected, I promise to take no instructions from any man, or group of men, unless the instructions are for the best interests of the city.

Stop! Using Tobacco

Perhaps you've tried to stop using tobacco only to find that the habit has such a hold on you that you gave up trying.

You know, better than anyone else that you ought to stop because, sooner or later, it is bound to undermine your health. Heart trouble, indigestion, dyspepsia, nervousness, insomnia, poor eye sight—these and many other ailments, can often be traced directly to the use of tobacco. Besides it is an expensive, utterly useless habit.

Habit Banished In 48 to 72 Hours

No matter how firm a grip tobacco has on you—no matter whether you've been smoking cigars, pipe or cigarettes or chewing plug or fine cut for a month or 60 years—Tobacco Resolvent will positively remove all craving for tobacco in any form in from 48 to 72 hours. It doesn't work so quickly that all tobacco "hunger" is gone almost before you know it. Your desire for a smoke or a chew begins to decrease after the very first dose.

Tobacco Resolvent contains no habit-forming drugs of any kind—it is in no sense a tobacco substitute. It does not cause the slightest shock to the nervous system; on the contrary, it quiets the nerves and makes you feel better in every way.

SEND Coupon for Proof Get your free booklet. Tell us all about the deadly effects of tobacco and how you intend to quit. We will also send you copies of letters from satisfied users telling how simple, quick treatment freed them absolutely from the habit. Just mail coupon—no postal bill.

ORPHEUM OFFERINGS

At the Orpheum next week come the famous Singer Midgets, thirty tiny men and women. This is the act with three elephants and twenty ponies and three carloads of scenery and electrical effects.

When the offering came last summer the theater was not nearly large enough to accommodate the crowds that filled the playhouse at each performance. Day after day the line of patrons reached from the box office window to the corner of Sixteenth and Harney streets, more than a block and a half distant from the entrance of the Orpheum. Even when the line was dismissed, owing to the lack of seats, people would again form the queue, and again be dismissed.

The act is an exhibition of such people on a large scale. The ensemble opening displays the whole company as singers, dancers and musicians. Next comes a display of vigor by the strongest small man of the entire world.

Chong, the Chinese conjuror, next displays his skill. Fifteen hunting dogs next appear, and also Anna Neider and her high school pony. Acrobatic cowboys, rope spinners and tumblers next display their skill.

Karl Becker, with his midget elephants is a conspicuous feature. There is also a great Cleopatra spectacle. Afterward comes a boxing bout. The toy shop march song and drill concludes the unusual act. The performance is the most unique thing of its kind that vaudeville has ever presented.

Signor Friscoe is an xylophonist. He is the first performer who has accomplished the feat of playing a four-part harmony upon this instrument. He uses four hammers at the same time. The feat is much the same as though a violinist were to play with two bows.

Pentrice Morgan, who became widely known while playing with Frances Stern in "The Earliest Way," is to appear in the one-act comedy, "Moonlight Madness." This is a sketch by Edgar Allan Wolff. Her support includes three very capable players.

Bobby Randall, who is billed as a "melodious mirth-maker" since well and tells stories. He is one of the most effective monologists on the Orpheum Circuit. His act is unfailingly popular.

Flo Conroy and Elma Howard are a pair of talented and attractive girls. They engage in comedy patter and songs. As vocalists they are particularly pleasing.

Gordon's Circus is known as "the speediest animal act in vaudeville." Ponies, dogs and monkeys take part in this performance. Their tricks show how remarkably capable Mr. Gordon is as a trainer.

Peggy Bremen and her brother are effective gymnasts. The come with a spectacular production in which to display their specialty with unsupported ladders.

"Topics of the Day" will be a film feature, displaying the bright and breezy sayings culled from newspapers. News events will have film presentation by Kinograms.

"TWINKLE TOES" AT GAYETY

If originality and assorted members in a show produce brilliancy and success, then "Twinkle Toes." Jean Bedini's latest extravaganza, which will open for the week at the popular Gayety Saturday matinee March 10, will exceed in brilliancy anything which the clever producer has ever yet sent forth on the road.

Jean Bedini has spared no expense and no trouble in gathering together a galaxy of stars such as no preceding attraction has ever boasted of. Most of the top liners in the cast make their first appearance on a stage other than vaudeville.

LOUCY BETTY WEBER

In the "Five Cry Babies" Jazz Band, "Twinkle Toes" possesses the most novel and ingenious collection of jazz dispensers on any wheel. Exponents of the jazz will experience considerable difficulty in maintaining a quiet demeanor when the "Five Cry Babies" make their appearance.

So the entire makeup of the show runs. Comedians of the highest order, the best men in their chosen arts, beautiful maidens and gorgeous scenery, all of them combine to make "Twinkle Toes" the splendid attraction that it is.

Patrons of the Gayety theatre will find that all this advance praise of the show is not the ranting of the press agent. "Twinkle Toes" is truly the marvel of the 1921 show season.

Ladies' dime matinee at 2:15 daily all week starting Monday. The Sunday matinee at 3 will be at pre-war prices.

WHY NOT have your watch repaired right? Brodegaard Bros. will do this for you. They know how. Strictly union shop.—Adv.

EMPRESS ATTRACTIONS

Coming as the stellar attraction of the vaudeville show opening at the Empress Sunday is an elaborate musical comedy in three scenes, "A Tale of Three Cities," produced and presented by Maurice E. Greenwald, a producer famous for his contributions to the world of vaudeville.

Billed as "A Joyful Journey of Song and Dance," it follows to the letter this perfect description of a tour that starts in New Orleans, where the southern negro laid the foundation of American music with its ever-popular ragtime and jazz syncopated melodies, then to San Francisco, where a touch of Orientalism is furnished through a visit to that city's famous Chinatown, then a coast-to-coast leap to New York City, the playground of the "tired business man" who seeks the recreation of the lighter amusements where night life brings bright lights and gaiety holds forth.

A featured act of the show will be the offering of J. C. Allman and Fern Nevins, who bill their act under the caption of "The Comedienne and the Tenor." With her fast sallies, unusual mannerisms and comical costumes Miss Nevins can get more laughs out of her auditors than one would imagine such a piquant miss could do. Mr. Allman proves an excellent foil and together with his wonderful tenor voice gives a most delightful bit of entertainment.

Jack Poik, an eccentric comedian of winning personality will present one of the attractive features of the show. The Three Alex novelty equilibrists, who offer an act of diversified thrills, sensational and hair-raising, completes the vaudeville program.

The photoplay attraction for the first half of the week will be "Oliver Twist, Jr." featuring Harold Goodwin, the new Fox star.

PRESIDENT REMINDS

PUBLIC COMES FIRST

President Hale Holden of the Burlington has issued a circular to officers and employees in which he expresses the hope that as it is impossible, at times, on some trains, to provide all passengers with seats, employees will realize and appreciate that pay passengers should be shown preference in the matter of seating accommodations; that the public judges a railroad very largely by the attitude of its employees, and that one and all should therefore endeavor, insofar as possible, to make that opinion favorable.

BURLINGTON INAUGURATES

"NO LOST PACKAGE MONTH"

The month of March has been designated by the Burlington railroad as "No Lost Package Month."

Lost packages are the source of great inconvenience on the part of shipper and heavy claim payments on the part of the railroad. During the year 1920, 21,293 claims were filed covering packages which disappeared between the time when they were received for shipment and should have been received by the consignees.

Losses are due to many causes. Thousands of packages go astray because of improper marking, no marking at all, or other errors, but by far the greater number disappear owing to the operation of thieves.

The purpose of the campaign is to materially reduce the number of lost packages.

PRESBYTERIANS WILL NOT

DISPOSE OF SEMINARY SITE

All talk to the contrary, the trustees of the Presbyterian philosophical seminary, in Kountze place, will not dispose of the property to the Catholics, who had proposed a new location for Father Flanagan's home for boys. Protests were filed by Kountze place residents against the sale, but it appears that Mrs. William McKenna was one of the leaders in the movement to prevent Father Flanagan having the place for his proposed new home for boys. Mrs. McKenna's husband, during his lifetime, was a saloonkeeper at Seventeenth and Nicholas streets. Catholics of Omaha have not taken her protest very gracefully and many of them give her credit for being the cause of Father Flanagan not being able to negotiate the deal.

COLORED PEOPLE HAVE

MONITOR FOR UNINITIATED

The colored people interested in the city commissioner race are leaving no stones unturned to see that their women are properly registered, in order that they may all vote on election day. In front of Election Commissioner Harley Moorhead's office in the court house, may be seen every day a fine young lady, representing the colored race, who is giving colored women instructions about registering. She has a chair just outside the election commissioners' office and shows the colored women the way to register and sees that they are given the proper courtesies.

Incidentally, it is stated at the election commissioner's office that Omaha colored women are visiting the commissioner's office in droves, in order to prepare themselves for the coming battle of ballots.

WOODMAN BATTLE AGAIN

CAUSES LOTS OF TALK

Much is again being heard about internal affairs of the Woodmen of the World and W. A. Fraser, head of that immense institution appears to be the butt of some dissension that is heard from time to time. Much talk about rebellion is heard, but from inside reports that possibility hardly appears probable.

Fraser has been head of the Woodmen of the World for several years and soon after succeeding to that position brought peace out of chaos. In those few years the membership has greatly increased and the W. O. W. has been put on a substantial basis. Its reserve funds are in perfect condition and its business is being transacted in a most businesslike manner.

From all appearances, some of the old fossils who thought they had life pensions and have lost them because they would not work are causing most of the present trouble. Fraser is not much heard of but is always on the job when needed. Incidentally, it may be said of Fraser that if his enemies are looking for a fight he is always ready for them.

Fearful and Wonderful.

Helen's mother had told her that her legs and arms were like the limbs of the tree and her body like the trunk. One night Helen bumped her knee and running into the other room cried: "Oh, mamma, I hurt the limb of my suitcase."

Thimble Inventor a Benefactor.

At first thimbles were rather costly and only well-to-do people could afford them, but afterward when made of lead and other common metals by machinery they became cheap. Their use was a great relief to all who had such sewing to do, and blessings were evoked on the inventor. The Dutch finger-hat (finger-hood) became in England the "dumb-bell," from its bell-like shape. It was originally worn on the thumb to parry the thrust of the needle pointing through the material, and not, as at present, to impel it.

That corns and bodily ease are incompatible is the most trite of truisms. That of the two bodily ease is the most to be desired, likewise needs no proving. Therefore, eliminate the corn. That you can do it by using needs only a single trial to demonstrate the fact to the most skeptical. Try it and you will be convinced, because the corn will be gone. Don't think that because various "Corn Cures" have not succeeded, CORNEASE will fail you also. If it does you get your money back. At drugists or by mail, 25 cents.

CORNEASE

Usually a "Bluffer."

A person who goes around bragging about his "awful temper" is the easiest person in the world to cow by a very small show of firmness and determination.

The "Seven Senses."

According to Ecclesiasticus, 17:3, man is endowed with the senses of seeing, hearing, tasting, feeling, smelling, understanding and speech. The last two are not, of course, "senses" in the scientific meaning of the term.
