GAMBLERS HAVE EASY PICKINGS ONCE MORE

Basball Pools Made in Sixteenth Street Resort Daily.

SOUTH SIDE PLACES ARE PROTECTED

Poker Games Are Run Wide Open and Collector Visits Proprietors For Protector's Rakeoff—Police Commissioner Too Busy to Bother Promoters.

The old town is again wide open and gambling in its most insidious form again prevails on nearly every corner. Our great "reform" administration has apparently forgotten many of the big promises it made when the leaders were running for office two year ago. Omaha in its palmiest days of vice never boasted of the number of gambling dens that are doing business at the present time and some of them are on broader lines than those of the good old times were permitted to operate.

Down in the old Diamond, on Douglas street, twenty-five years ago, could be seen daily from fifty to 200 persons daily putting their money on horse race pools, received direct by wire from the great eastern race tracks. Today may be seen even larger crowds in some of our downtown gambling joints, shoving and jamming each other, in an attempt to get up to the counter and buy a ticket on some base ball pool. One of the proprietors of a leading base ball gambling house said yesterday: "We simply can not take care of the business in our present quarters. What we need is more room. No, there is absolutely no need to advertise our business; we can't take care of what we already have."

"But are you not afraid Mr. Ringer will bother you?"

"Oh, not at all. That has all been settled. We have a furniture man down the way who is the real fixer. He sure is in right with this police bunch. Why, look at ——— down the street. He sells chips over the counter, just like the big poker houses used to do for his games, and cashes in the winner when he comes to the counter. Oh, we are not worrying at all."

Down on the South Side the condition is even worse. Open games are going on there just like they did when they said "everything goes." One of these joints is near one of the busiest corners and a big poker game, where they never get knocked over, goes on day and night. On the South Side it is state, a big colored gent is the collector. From all reports this colored gent knows the game and knows who to deal with. Some of the old timers have made peace with the powers that be and the game increases in popularity so long as the fellow who bosses the job is greased up regularly.

The "system" on the South Side is really better than it ever was before. Two of our city commissioners reside down there and they have been doing pretty well, it is said. A man named McClintock, who landed a fine city job, is one of the ambulance chasers for the law partner of a well known city official, it is stated, and takes a strong hand in dictating some of the things that are possible on the South Side.

Mr. Ringer, superintendent of police, it is stated by those who are interested in his political career, has entirely too much on his hands to worry about small things like gambling houses and red light districts. He finds it necessary to make Sunday evening addresses in some of our churches and tell what a clean city he has made out of Omaha, while the gambling dens, disorderly houses and other similar places are doing business at the old stands.

A list of something more than thirty open gambling dens has been received by The Mediator and from

FLYNN'S DEATH THROWS PALL OVER COMMUNITY

Thousands Mourn Loss of Man Who Was Friend to Everybody and Never Injured Anybody.

The death of Thomas J. Flynn last Tuesday has thrown a pall over the entire community. He was one of the most popular men in Omaha, both in civil and public life. It is said of him that he was a friend of everybody and never injured anybody. His career was mostly political for the last twenty years but in that time he never made even a political enemy and was respected by every person who came in contact with him.

Flynn had a heart as big as his brawny body. He has assisted more poor fellows, in his quiet way, than any man who has ever been in public life in Omaha. He had a sympathetic nature that well nigh bankrupted him financially, but which made him wealthy in friends. He was clean and upright in every dealing and in ### his long political career it is said of him that he never did an unkind act even toward men who styled themselves his political enemies. The whole world is the loser in the death of Marshal Flynn.

DAHLMAN'S APPOINTMENT SATISFIES HIS FRIENDS

The naming of former Mayor James C. Dahlman to succeed T. J. Flynn, who died Tuesday, as United States marshal will please everybody who has known Mr. Dahlman. It is a position for which he is eminently fitted and his appointment is quite in keeping with the general order of things. Dahlman is pretty well acquainted with the duties of the office he will occupy and his ability to fill it is unquestioned.

A coincidence of the appointment is the fact that Marshal Flynn sent for the former mayor a few days before he died and indicated to him that he was the best friend of the dying official.

Doings In Omaha Fifty Years Ago

Dean Noyes, stockholder in the city hall, was being kidded about the next city election, but admitted he was receptive. His friends said he was overlooking no bets.

W. H. Wilkie left the Sunderland coal yard unprotected long enough to visit a wrestling match at our city opera house.

One of our rising physicians, Dr. F. A. Edwards, was receiving callers at his office in the Securities building. The doctor had a taking way about him that appealed to his friends.

Jack Fitzgerald, noted for his mushroom ear, threw a fit when he lost thirty-five cents in a pinochle game. Slim Billy is said to have pulled the trick on Jack.

old trade at the Carlton barber shop. Tony's friends wondered how long they could depend on him sticking around.

Charlie Frankie announced that he would not be in the pop business this year because he had troubles enough of his own.

Somebody stole a card of Terry Fox's peanuts while he was listening to a nickle-in-the-slot phonograph and he belloved his head off. The peanuts were not labeled.

The word went out that a high class carbuncle had been stored in the Gayety theater, but later reports said that E. L. Johnson took it with him.

Joe Buckley was visiting friends in West Point for a brief period.

First Note of Warning

The first note of warning in the city campaign which is to occur a year hence, was sounded the other night at the Auditorium, when former Mayor James C. Dahlman announced that he would again be a candidate for mayor of the city next spring. Although much has been heard of the matter among Dahlman's friends, this is the first time he has taken occasion to say he would be a candidate for the office of mayor.

Dahlman will have several of his old associates on the ticket if all reports are true, among them Joe Hummel and Dan Butler. Dean Noyes has not given public expression to his intentions, but is known to be lining up for a place on the list of candidates. He was inclined to file two years ago, but changed his mind at the last moment.

It is not surprising that considerable is being heard thus early in the game about the next city election. Mayor Smith has definitely announced that he will not again run for office and much dissatisfaction has been heard from various quarters about conditions in the city since the present commission took hold of matters. This is especially true as regards the police department. It is pretty generally admitted, even among Ringer partisans, that he has been an abject failure in the position of police commissioner.

Harry Zimman is expected to be a candidate for his office again and is said to be preparing his political machine for the big scrap. One of his former business associates, Billy Gerke, was in the city last week. He says he will be in the city early in the spring to put in his best efforts to defeat Zimman, who he claims gave him the worst of a big business deal.

Dahlman will probably remain in the office of United States marshal for a year, which will give him opportunity to groom himself for the big fight.

PROTECTED VICE IS CHARGE NOW HEARD

Notorious Johnny Moore Leads North Thirteenth Street Ring.

RED LIGHT DISTRICT AGAIN BUSY

Moore Operates Freely and Boasts He Is Friend of Ringer and Harry Lapidus—Races Mix Freely and Solicitors Work On Streets.

Intense interest is being expressed these days as to who is furnishing protection for half a hundred or more joints in Omaha, north and south side, that are operating in defiance of every law of the land and getting away with it in the most positive manner. The proprietor of one of one of these places, who is admittedly the most notorious law violator known to Omaha in recent years, has stated openly that he looks to Harry Lapidus for protection and in the same breath admits that he personally sees Superintendent Dean Ringer himself when he feels that occasion demands such action.

Probably the most brazen of all these places is operated by "Johnny" Moore, who recently served a penitentiary term for selling "dope" and who has again returned to the city and engaged in business. Moore has headquarters on North Thirteenth street between Capitol avenue and Tenth street. He recently had some differences with the law and sought legal assistance. The attorney he approached refused absolutely to have anything to do with him. He told this attorney that Harry Lapidus was taking care of him and that he made frequent calls upon Mr. Ringer himself, when matters did not turn the way he expected they would go.

Moore's place is known as the biggest dope joint west of Chicago. Men and women of all colors mix there daily and secure their allotment of dope and spend a few hours enjoying the influence of the drug. Whites and blacks mix indiscriminately and not a word is said nor an arrest made. Moore recently returned to his old trade after serving only a few months in the government prison. When taken to the penitentiary Moore was known to have $18,000 which he presumably accumulated in the illegal business of peddling dope, of which he was convicted.

His place on North Thirteenth street is now running wider open than ever, without molestation. He has made the open statement that he is fully protected against serious difficulty by men who are close to the police authorities and says he is a friend of Dean Ringer, head of our police department. His dealings in the past have been of the most high handed character and the short penitentiary sentence he served appears not to have worried him in the least.

The places he operates were visited recently by an attorney who had occasion to look over conditions. While he was sitting waiting for the proprietor a white woman and a negro appeared together and were given a room adjoining. A few minutes later a white man and negro woman appeared and the same scene occurred.

Incidentally, this part of the city has again become the Red Light district of Omaha. Half-dressed woman appear at the windows whenever a stranger shows his face on the street and solicitors pace up and down the thoroughfare in a manner more brazen than was ever the custom in the old days when the red light was at its height of prosperity. The buildings in this vicinity have become headquarters for all of the protected leaders of underworld life and they pursue their occupation in the most brazen manner.

From time to time in recent months the small residence places in this vicinity have been picked up by dealers

WET DEMOCRATS STEAM ROLLER ELMER THOMAS AND TOM MURRAY

Jim Dahlman Takes Hand in Scrap at County Convention—Several "Prominent Democrats" Are Left Off State Convention List.

Whatever may be said of the work of the Douglas county democratic convention last Tuesday evening, it certainly worked out its steam roller on such interlopers as Elmer Thomas and Thomas B. Murray, to say nothing of Dr. Jennie Callfas and other mischief makers.

At the primary election the Douglas county democrats worked true to form and elected 98 per cent of tried and true old horses who have made the local organization what it is. Of the 150 odd delegates elected at the primary and who attended the convention less than half a dozen were bolters. They elected not to bolt, however, and attempted to make themselves heard.

Elmer Thomas was very much wrought up because he and four or five of his "dry" knockers were not elected delegates to the state convention. Elmer said it was a shame that so many "prominent democrats" should be left off the list. Jim Dahlman was on the job and made it clear to Elmer just why they were forgotten. In the course of his brief speech, which was very much to the point, the former mayor said:

"Who are these 'prominent democrats' you have mentioned. Let them stand up and be counted."

None of them stood up, however, because it was a hundred to one shot against them. Whatever may occur at the state convention which will be held in another week or so, the Douglas county bunch will be a unit against any Bryan promotion and will vote against any attempt to put prohibition in the platform adopted by that body.

It is expected that Bill Bryan himself will be on the job when the state convention is called to order and will attempt to dominate the entire body. The scrap ought to be a good one because there is every evidence that our Douglas county delegates, 166 in number, will insist on having a hand in the doings.

One of the features of the county convention was the manner in which the women acted. With one exception they were all with the majority. Dr. Jennie Callfas was there but did not attempt to get into the fracas. With her curly headed little husband she sat meekly through the whole affair and let Elmer Thomas do her fussing for her. She will not be a delegate to the state convention, which was one of the causes of so much peevishness among the scattered minority.

KILLING CITIZENS NECESSARY TO EDUCATE TO POLICE METHODS

Eberstein Hints That Emergency Cars Must Have Clear Right-of-Way Regardless of Results—Two Killed, Seven Injured in Same Week.

The city of Omaha is having some remarkable experiences with police officers accumulated under the regime of Dean Ringer. Within the last month five of them have been summarily discharged for crimes against decency and good order and otherwise slated for trials for crimes that do not speak well for law and order, especially under a reform administration, such as our city is presumed to have.

The automobile crash between a police patrol wagon and a private car, the killing of a prominent woman engaged in the city schools and numerous other tragedies coming in short order do not speak well, to say the least, for the ability of these reformers. Chief Eberstein, in a recent statement, folks in the east and killed one and sent five to a hospital, in which he intimated that it was necessary to educate the people up to the importance of keeping out of the way of police vehicles, even if a few of our citizens were killed in the course of this education.

Witnesses who testified in the coroner's court gave evidence that indicated reckless driving was not confined to the ordinary citizen. Everybody understands it is necessary for police vehicles to act promptly in emergencies. There has been nothing produced, however, to indicate that everybody's life should be put in danger whenever an emergency call is sent in.

All the important evidence given in the smash between the police car and a private automobile at Cumine street and the boulevard was to the effect that the police car was traveling along at the rate of 45 miles an hour. There is absolutely no call for such madness, despite what Mr. Eberstein may say and orders of a patrol car traveling at such a speed could be quickly pulled into the curb and fired or sent to jail.

Two persons have been killed, eight the week by police cars and only a dozen are dangerously hurt as a result of such mad driving. City law reformers who are in a hurry to make their mark through the streets of a metropolitan district at a rate of 45 miles an hour.

Such brutes is all humanly even so great a reformer as Dean Ringer can not make the mark and fill of our people believe it is a good thing. Like all other things, done in the name of reform, this affair will be passed over after a superficial investigation and nobody will be punished for the death of two persons and injury to several others.

WORRYING ABOUT THAT BONUS.

Leaders of both dominant political parties are worrying about the proposed bonus for soldiers and sailors. With the presidential campaign coming on these leaders realize that the soldier and sailor vote is going to have much to do with the election of a president this fall.

There has been a decided attempt by leaders in congress to sidestep the bonus legislation that has been asked for, because, as they state, it would cost more than a billion dollars. That fact, however, is not going to relieve matters any for the dominant parties that are looking for votes. At this time the republicans are dominant in the work of putting across new legislation and upon them rests the responsibility for either doing something for the soldiers and sailors or giving them a plausible reason why they can not act.

The big trouble just now is that economic conditions are not ripe for issuing another million and a half of government bonds for the proposed bonus payment. There is a very general demand, however, by the ex-service men and their relatives and friends that congress do something for these boys.

The war produced a lot of new millionaires and made rich thousands who remained at home and profited while the youth of the land was fighting our battles in Europe. One thing is morally certain, and that is that sooner or later the ex-service men are going to insist on being given some remuneration for their hard work in the service of their country. The political party that refuses to take full cognizance of this fact is bound to get the worst of it. These boys are entitled to some of the wealth that was accumulated in their absence and they are not going to stand for any shirking. They have the votes and if they stick together they will receive their rewards. The quicker they receive their bonus the better off will be the political party that makes the bonus possible.

CONVICT 2253 FOR PRESIDENT.

Convict 2253, alias Eugene Victor Debs, has been nominated by the socialist party as their candidate for president of the United States, it being the fifth time he has been thus "honored."

Debs got his start in Chicago when he pulled off the famous A. R. U. strike, which was a pitiable failure. He then went into the socialist business and has been at it ever since. He is at present serving a penitentiary term for treason and kindred crimes.

In the nomination of Debs it is officially announced for the socialist party that it will not recede a whit from its stand for a revolutionary program, which in itself is sufficient to make it clear why Debs is again made a presidential candidate.

"We stand for principles and not for glorious achievements," is the way one of the socialist leaders puts it. It might be suggested that if followers of the socialist program were to use good judgment they would attempt to do something that would make it possible for them to win. Whatever may be said of their principles, it is apparent that they are not being taken seriously by any great number of voters and it takes votes to accomplish anything in these modern times.

About the safest place for Debs and others of his ilk is behind the bars where they are now safely stashed. One thing is certain, these fellows have had to go to work, something they never did before being sent to prison. And the civilized world will not miss them if they never get out of prison.

GAMBLERS HAVE EASY PICKINGS ONCE MORE

(Continued From First Page.) these reports it is gathered that somebody is receiving a fine bundle of protection money. Of course, Mr. Ringer would not accept anything of that sort, but it is possible that some of his friends are imposing on him.

Incidentally, our reorganized and enlarged police force is very active and, despite the fact that it becomes necessary for Chief Eberstein to fire a dozen each month and apologize for other new recruits, this fine bunch of reformers should not be criticized. Elmer Thomas would not like it if such a thing occurred, and that ought to be enough to keep any honest person from saying anything against Mr. Ringer and his system.

PROTECTED VICE IS CHARGE NOW HEARD

demned. So long, however, as they will return 40 to 60 per cent in rentals they are permitted to stand.

Johnny Moore has become the king of the district and, according to his own statements, is able to use the grease and get away with his nefarious business.

ZBYSZKO-CUTLER MATCH PLEASES ALL THE FANS

There are indications that peace may come to the ranks of promoters of the wrestling game in this section, although the matter is still somewhat uncertain. The bout between Stanislaus Zbyszko and Charlie Cutler Wednesday night brought out a good crowd of fans and there were also present a number of leading lights in the wrestling world. Joe Stecher, although in the vicinity, was the only absentee.

Zbyszko's return to the mat in America has set a lot of the big fellows, including Stecher, guessing. He has been defeating them all since his return and has not been put on his back once. It is about up to Stecher to stage a match with Zbyszko or confess he is afraid.

Zbyszko has been showing wonderful prowess at the big game and western fans would like to see him meet

COUNTY COMMISSIONER CONTEST ALREADY OPEN

The contest for county commissioner from the district now represented by Date Compton of Waterloo is already on, although the election is six months away. This is one of the most important offices to be filled at the next election and the contest is expected to be a good one. Under the law passed by the last legislature county commissioners are nominated by districts, but are elected at large. Thus, instead of only those persons in a particular district voting for these offices, every voter in the county will join in the contest.

Date Compton will be opposed by T. F. Stroud, proprietor of the big machine works in the north end of the city. He is well known in Omaha and had a runaway for the nomination against two other opponents.

Compton is a well known land owner of Waterloo and is serving his first term. He is popular in the country districts, where the voters have pinned their faith to him in the improved road movement.

KRUG PARK OPEN AGAIN; ATTRACTIVE AS USUAL

Beautiful Krug park, Omaha's best summer amusement place, opens Sunday for what the management says will be the biggest season it has ever enjoyed. Last year the park was remodeled throughout, but did not get open with its full line of amusements until a much later date. This year there have been added many new features, especially in the line of attractions that furnish amusement and pleasure for the visitor.

Visitors will not be hampered getting to the park this year by bad streets, which resulted from paving and changing of car tracks last year. Automobile parties will find the going greatly improved and Krug Park managers have also provided better and larger parking spaces.

The street car company will this year make special effort to have a service to the park in keeping with

Resourceful Traveler.
Ole the Bear (A. R. Westberg), mail carrier between Revelstoke, British Columbia, and Downie Creek, 45 miles up the Big Bend, succeeded in accomplishing a feat that establishes a new record in this district. The great depth of snow up the Big Bend, together with the heavy crust caused by raining and freezing, made it practically impossible for a horse to travel the roads, but Ole conceived the idea of making snowshoes for his horse, which he did out of birch, constructing them circular in shape and more than a foot across. For protection he covered the horse's legs with blankets, and thus he succeeded in making Revelstoke in three days without harm to himself or horse.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Every true university should make room in its scheme for life out-of-doors. There is much to be said for John Milton's plan of a school whose pupils should go together each year on long horseback journeys and sailing cruises in order to see the world. . . . If such men cross a field or thicket they see more than the seven wonders of the world. That is culture. Stop!
Using Tobacco
Perhaps you've tried to stop using tobacco only to find that the habit has such a hold on you that you gave up trying.
You know, both of them agree that you ought to stop because, sooner or later, it is bound to undermine your health. Heart disease, indigestion, dry eyes, nervousness, insomnia, poor eye sight—these and many other disorders, can often be traced directly to the use of tobacco. It is too expensive, utterly useless habit.
Habit Banished
In 48 to 72 Hours
No matter how firm a grip tobacco has on you—no matter whether you've been smoking cigars, pipe or cigarettes or chewing plug or fine cut for a month or 20 years—Tobacco Redeemer will positively remove all craving for tobacco in any form in from 48 to 72 hours. It does its work so quickly that all tobacco "bugs" are gone almost before you know it. Your desire for a smoke or a chew begins to decrease after the very first dose.
Tobacco Redeemer contains no habit-forming drugs of any kind—it is in no sense a tobacco substitute. It does not cause the slightest shock to the nervous system, or the contrary. It quiets the nerves and makes you feel better in every way.

AYS and PLAYERS

Visitors to Omaha will be well repaid in paying a visit to Krug Park this year. No matter how many times you have visited the park during the past, it is so much bigger and better this year that your visit to the Gate City, whether on business or pleasure bent, will be in complete unless you spend a few hours at this big outdoor amusement resort.

FISHES FIVE HOURS AND HAS FRUITLESS RESULTS

Charles Schneckenger, proprietor of the Hub Transfer, fished five hours in a sand pit at Meadows last Sunday. A deputy game warden then came along and asked to see his license which he had carelessly left at home.

Charlie was a great fisherman in his time.

Brilliant screen artist that she is, Louise Glaum, never approached, at least in histrionic impressiveness, the characterization which she is to offer on the Brandeis theater screen, beginning Sunday, according to the New York critics, who have seen "Sex," the new J. Then as a different Adrienne, married, devoted to her husband and her home she gives a poignant insight into the heart of the woman who is destined to pay for despoiling the happiness of others by the destruction of her own castle of dreams.

The climax of "Sex" is said to be one of the most tremendous scenes ever staged for the film camera. Its finale is surprising and unusual and clearly shows the genius of the pro-
